

Conflict and Fragility

M6 726 14530 ✓

Transition Financing

BUILDING A BETTER RESPONSE

B 370432

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	11
Executive summary	15
1. Background and rationale for transition financing.....	21
Introduction.....	22
Why transition financing matters – and why it is about more than money	23
2. Understanding transition – challenges and key concepts.....	27
International efforts to conceptualise assistance to conflict-affected countries ..	28
Understanding transition.....	31
3. Aid flows to fragile and conflict-affected states	35
Official development assistance to fragile and conflict-affected states	36
Measuring transition financing.....	38
Moving the debate forward	44
4. Donor policies and procedures	47
Policies, structures and decision-making procedures for transition situations.....	48
Specific funding modalities for transition situations.....	51
Emerging good practice and implications for donors	55
5. Funding instruments at the country level.....	57
Case study: Afghanistan	58
Case study: Southern Sudan	61
Overall findings from mapping of instruments	66
Lessons learned and future implications for DAC’s consideration.....	72

6. Conclusions	77
Improving the starting point and approach for engagement in transition situations	79
Identifying priorities and objectives	81
Improving the operation of pooled funding modalities	81
Changing donor policies and procedures	82
Next steps for the OECD DAC	83
Annex A. Key definitions	85
Annex B. Matrix of guiding frameworks	87
Annex C. List of donors and their funding instruments	95
Annex D. Country case studies	99
Afghanistan	99
Burundi	104
Central African Republic (CAR)	107
Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC)	110
Southern Sudan	113
Timor-Leste	119
Bibliography	125
Figures
Figure 2.1 Spectrum of peace interventions	28
Figure 3.1 ODA to fragile and non-fragile states 1995-2007	36
Figure 3.2 Per capita ODA to fragile and non-fragile states: 1995-2007 (USD) ...	37
Figure 3.3 Long-, medium- and short-term humanitarian assistance 1995-2007 (USD million)	38
Figure 3.4 Funding for transition activities 2002-2007 (USD million)	39
Figure 3.5 ODA to security related sectors 2002-2007 (USD million)	40
Figure 3.6 Patterns of aid to fragile states in crisis	43
Figure 5.1 Humanitarian and development aid to Afghanistan (USD million)....	60
Figure 5.2 Overview of key funding instruments and programmes in Southern Sudan	62
Figure 5.3 Bilateral and multilateral funding to Sudan 1995-2007 (USD million)...	63
Figure D.1 ARTF disbursements SY1381-1387	102
Figure D.2 Humanitarian and development aid to Burundi	106