

002 052 43-1

Tanzania

The Story of an African Transition

Roger Nord, Yuri Sobolev, David Dunn, Alejandro Hajdenberg,
Niko Hobdari, Samar Maziad, and Stéphane Roudat

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	From Ujamaa to MKUKUTA	1
	Chronology of Tanzania's Transformation	2
	Opening Up the Economy	5
	Placing Public Finances on a Durable Sound Footing	5
	Strengthening Monetary Policy and Building a Modern Financial System	6
	Foreign Aid	6
	The Road Ahead	7
2	Opening Up the Economy	8
	Removal of Price, Production, and Marketing Controls	9
	Unification of the Exchange Rate	10
	Liberalization of Foreign Trade	12
	Privatization and Reform of Parastatals	16
	Market-Oriented Regulation and an Attractive Business Environment	19
3	Putting Public Finances on a Durably Sound Footing	21
	Overall Performance	21
	Stronger Public Financial Management	25
	Mobilizing More Revenue	29
	The Challenge of Financing Infrastructure Development	36
4	Establishing Effective Monetary Policy and a Vibrant Financial Sector	38
	Financial Sector Reforms	39
	Effective Monetary Policy in a Liberalized Economy	42
	Second-Generation Financial Sector Reforms	46
	Capital Account Liberalization and the Effectiveness of Monetary Policy	47
5	Aid, Growth, and Competitiveness	50
	History and Evolution of Aid to Tanzania	50
	Factors Behind the Recent Growth Acceleration in Tanzania	52

Impact of Higher Aid and FDI on the Real Exchange Rate and Competitiveness	60
Aid, Social Services, and Poverty Reduction	63
Scaling Up or Scaling Down?	63
6 Challenges for the Future	65
Building on Achievement	65
Broadening the Revenue Base, Making Public Spending More Efficient, and Improving Public Debt Management	66
Extending Financial Sector Reform	67
Accelerating Private Sector Development and Reducing Bottlenecks to Growth	67
Achieving Lasting Poverty Reduction	68
Appendix 1. IMF Involvement in Tanzania	69
References	73
Boxes
1. ERP Foreign Trade Incentive Schemes	13
2. EAC Customs Union	14
3. Tariff Protection and Dispersion under the EAC CET	15
4. The Parastatal Sector Reform Commission (PSRC)	18
5. Public Service Reform	24
6. Decentralization by Devolution	28
7. The Mining Regime	32
8. Loans and Advances Realization Trust	40
9. Restructuring of State-Owned Banks	41
10. An Independent Bank of Tanzania	42
11. Operations to Sterilize Large Aid Inflows	46
12. Second-Generation Financial Sector Reform Action Plan	47
13. Making Monetary Policy More Effective: The Case for Inflation Targeting	48
14. HIPC and MRDI Debt Relief	53
15. The Literature on Aid Effectiveness and Growth	54
16. Estimating Total Factor Productivity in Tanzania	59
17. Assessment of Tanzania's Real Exchange Rate	62
Figures
1. Tanzania and Sub-Saharan Africa: Macroeconomic Performance, 1970–2008	2
2. Tanzania: External Sustainability Indicators, 1970–2008	2
3. Tanzania: The Chronology of Transformation	4
4. Tanzania: Official and Parallel Market Exchange Rates, 1970–95	11
5. Tanzania: Tariff Rates, 1993–2007	14