

MA 240 5410 ✓

ADB/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia and the Pacific

STRATEGIES FOR BUSINESS, GOVERNMENT, AND CIVIL SOCIETY TO FIGHT CORRUPTION IN ASIA AND THE PACIFIC

Proceedings of the 6th Regional Anti-Corruption Conference for Asia and the Pacific

Held in Singapore, 26–28 November 2008, and hosted by the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau (CPIB) Singapore

Asian Development Bank

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

B 368361

Contents

Foreword	7
Main abbreviations and acronyms	8
Introduction	11
Acknowledgments and editorial remarks	12
Keynote addresses	13
Welcome Remarks by Senior Minister Ho Peng Kee	15
Opening Statement by Lawrence Greenwood	19
Opening Statement by Mario Amano	25
Closing Remarks by Peter Ho	29
Concluding Remarks by Patrick Moulette	33
Chapter 1 Combating corruption in business transactions—a priority for governments, business, and civil society	35
The Business Case for Fighting Corruption (John Bray)	38
Efforts of the Business Community to Fight Corruption (David Lyman)	47
Singapore’s Experience in Fighting Bribery in Business (Soh Kee Hean)	52
P.R. China’s Campaign against Commercial Bribery (Wang Huangeng)	58
A Global Framework for the Fight against Corruption in Business Transactions—the United Nations Convention against Corruption (Kuniko Ozaki)	63
Civil Society’s Contribution to Curbing Bribery in Business (Peter Rooke)	68

Chapter 2 The role of international criminal law standards in combating bribery	75
Implementing the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention (William Loo and Christine Uriarte)	77
Setting Global Standards — the Criminalization Chapter of the United Nations Convention against Corruption (Kuniko Ozaki)	87
Effective Anti-Corruption Enforcement: Another Flight of Fancy? (Mathew Joseph)	91
Chapter 3 Corporate compliance programs and integrity systems.....	101
Corporate Compliance Programs and Integrity Systems: Singapore’s Experience (Juthika Ramanathan)	107
Chapter 4 Conflict of interest—the soft side of corruption	113
OECD Guidelines, Toolkit, and Emerging Concerns (János Bertok)	114
Conflict of Interest in Indonesia: Business as Usual (Arief T. Surowidjojo)	119
Auditors’ Conflicts—Independence in the Audit of Financial Statements (Navita Srikant)	129
Conflict of Interest in the Transport Sector (William Paterson)	134
Chapter 5 Working together to combat corruption: International and regional initiatives	139
The APG and its Role in Combating Corruption in Asia and the Pacific (Ong Hian Sun)	141
APEC Business Principles and UN Global Compact as Examples of Regional and Global Cooperation in the Fight against Corruption (Peter Rooke)	147
Translating Regional and Global Initiatives into Local Action—Insights from the Republic of Korea (Geo-Sung Kim)	151
Implementing the Extractive Industry Transparency Initiative (EITI) in Timor-Leste (Manuel de Lemos)	153
13th International Anti-Corruption Conference—Global Transparency: Fighting Corruption for a Sustainable Future (Kathleen M. Moktan)	156

Chapter 6 Private-to-Private Corruption: The Last Piece of the Puzzle	161
Rethinking the Definition of Corruption (Jermyn Brooks)	163
Combating Corruption in the Private Sector—the ICAC of Hong Kong, China (Li Bo-lan Rebecca)	165
Singapore’s Strategies to Fight Corruption in the Private Sector (Koh Teck Hin)	170
Chapter 7 Fighting corruption and the sustainable development agenda	177
The Philippines’ Experience with Donor Supported National Anti-Corruption Efforts (Merceditas N. Gutierrez)	179
Republic of Korea’s Experience as a Provider of Anti-Corruption Technical Assistance (So-yeong Yoon)	183
Why Corruption Matters to Donors and their Role in Curbing Corruption (Marcel van den Bogaard)	190
Annexes	194
List of Participants	195
Agenda	209
ADB/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia-Pacific Secretariat Contacts	214