

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements.....	IX
Foreword
Patricia Layzell Ward & Darlene E. Weingand.....	X

WEDNESDAY August 27, 1997

INAUGURATION OF THE CONFERENCE

Welcome: Ole Harbo

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: Minister of Research Jytte Hilden

SESSION 1. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

A Distance Independent/Open Learning Education Model For The Continuing Professional Education Of Librarians Maxine K. Rochester & Ken Eustace.....	1
Continuing Professional Development And Flexible Information Workers: Problems And Opportunities Anne Goulding and Evelyn Kerslake.....	10
Future Academic Library Skills: What Will They Be? Steve Morgan.....	19

SESSION 2a. Models to Cope with Growing Continuing Education Needs

Hungarian CPE Efforts Intensified Through International Co-operation Mihaly Palvoky, Agnes Teglassi and Niels Ole Pors.....	30
Users Training Programs Developed By The Brazilian University Libraries Maria N. O. Silva.....	40
Constructs For Investigating Lack of Persistence In Experimental Distance Education: A Study Of Health Science Librarians Diane Tobin Johnson, MaryEllen C. Sievert, Teresa Hartman and Timothy Patrick.....	49

SESSION 2b. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

The Changing Nature Of Continuing Education For The Individual: Will Libraries And Librarians Continue To Play A Role In Supporting Learners? Clive Cochrane.....	60
On The Education Of Information Resources Management Professionals At High Level In China Peng Feizhang and Zhang Jin.....	67

Closing The Information Technology Gap: Typical Training Concerns In A South African University Library In The 1990's Clare M. Walker.....	72
--	----

SESSION 3. Models to Cope With Growing Continuing Education Needs

LIS Educational Systems Within CMC (Computer Mediated Communication) Augusta Maria Paci .....	81
Group Mentoring. : A First Experience In Continuing Education Ann Ritchie and Paul Genoni .....	88
Facilitating Workplace Learning Jana Varlejs .....	98

THURSDAY August 28, 1997

SESSION 4a. Training the Trainer

Training Of Trainers And Professional Development: Estonian Prospective Aira Lepik .....	105
New Times - New Possibilities Eugenia M Rossinskaya.....	114
Librarians As Change Agents In The HE Community Kay Flatten .....	118

SESSION 4b. Measuring Continuing Education Needs

Theory And Practice Of Law Librarianship Through Continuing Professional Education: The Nigerian Experience Oturemi Jegede.....	122
Continuing Education And Information Technology: A Study Of Content And Deliverables Niels Ole Pors and Trine Schreiber .....	133
Differences Between Librarians And Library Directors In Their Perception Of Continuing Professional Education Gabriella Dotan and Irith Getz.....	140
Information Technology Developments As A Factor In Determination Of Continuing Education Needs In Some Southern African Academic Libraries Lesley M Moyo.....	151

SESSION 5. Workshops

Measuring Continuing Education Needs And Results Competency For The Twenty-First Century Blanche Woolls.....	161
--	-----

SESSION 6a. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

Personal Professional Development: Competencies For The Solo Librarian Sue Lacey Bryant .....	179
Growing With The Customer: Challenges To The Estonian Librarian In The 21st Century Aili Norberg .....	189
Planning Professional Excellence In Library And Information Organisations - A South African Perspective Fransie Terblanche .....	193

SESSION 6b. Models to Cope with Growing Continuing Education Needs

LIS Professionals In The Networked Learning Environment Irene Wormell .....	201
Russian System Of Continuing Education In Transition Irina L. Klim .....	211
Continuing LIS Professional Education Through Distance Mode: Prospects For India Uma Kanjilal .....	219

SESSION 7a. Models to Cope with Growing Continuing Education Needs

The Internet And Continuing Professional Education Laurel A. Clyde .....	225
The Impact Of National Training Reform And The Restructuring Of Industrial Awards On Staff Development In Australian Academic And State Libraries Angela Bridgland .....	235
Distance Education As A New Possibility For Library And Information Science Education In Estonia Sirje Virkus .....	249

SESSION 7b. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

Evaluation As A Human Development For Professionals In The Twenty-First Century: A Brazilian Experience Sueli Angelica Do Amaral .....	255
An Approach To Identifying Skills Within An Information Culture: The Application Of Information Policy To Information Cultures Michael Kristiansson and Leif Kajberg .....	264
Continuing Education For Croatian Librarians: Needs And Opportunities Tatjana Aparac .....	271

SESSION 8a. Training the Trainer

The Academic Librarian And Scholarship: A Vision For The Twenty-First Century Araxie Paula Churukian .....	278
Measuring Continuing Education Needs: Identifying Transferable Skills Through Mentoring Jane Farmer and Fiona Campbell .....	284
Training The Trainer: A Perspective From The ALA / CLENE-RT' Darlene E. Weingand .....	290

SESSION 8b. User Education: The Librarian as Educator

Effectiveness Of An Academic Library As A Continuing Education Provider Abdus Sattar Chaudhry .....	306
Applying Principles For Effective Staff Development To Large Urban Public Library Systems In Canada Ken Haycock .....	316
The New Role Of Librarians As Internet Trainers Diann Rusch-Feja .....	324

SESSION 9. User Education: The Librarian as Educator

Information Exchange And Communication Between Researchers: The Specialised Librarian's Part In Scientific Research Viviane Couzinet and Arlette Bouzon .....	334
Information Skills Teaching In The Age Of The Electronic Library In The United Kingdom Graham Walton, Joan Day and Catherine Edwards .....	342
Libraries As Learning Organisations Ganga B. Dakshinamurti .....	350

SESSION 10a. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

The Higher School Of Information Service In Prague Marcela Burilová .....	358
Continuing Education Of Information Professionals In A Changing Environment: With Special Reference To Brazil Tania Mara Botelho .....	366
The Library And Bibliometrics Ona Voverient .....	370

SESSION 10b. Continuing Education Planning: Individual and Institutional

Polish Experiences In Continuing Education For Librarians Maria Kocojowa and Wanda Pindlowa.....	374
Asian Institute For Education In Librarianship And Information Science: A Continuing Professional Development Proposal Russell Bowden .....	378
Librarians Continuing Education in the Libraries of Estonia Krista Talvi .....	385
Appendix A Organising Committee.....	392
Appendix B Authors of the Papers.....	393

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Organising Committee wishes to acknowledge the support of:

Emeritus Professor Elizabeth Stone for her continuing inspiration;
K.G. Saur for the publication of the proceedings which disseminate the ideas of CPD;
IFLA Headquarters staff for their friendly advice;
Danida for the support for some overseas delegates;
the membership of CPERT for their enthusiasm;
the authors of papers and presenters of workshops and poster sessions who provided the intellectual content of the conference; and finally, but not least to the Royal School of Librarianship for providing the Secretariat and hosting the conference. Particular thanks are due to Ole Harbo, Director of the School, Niels Ole Pors, and to Lone Laurberg who handled the planning and administration effectively with a good sense of humour.