

Monetary Standards in the Periphery

Paper, Silver and Gold, 1854–1933

Edited by

Pablo Martín Aceña

Professor of Economics and Economic History

University of Alcalá de Henares

and

Director, Economic History Program

Public Enterprise Foundation (Madrid)

and

Jaime Reis

Professor of Economic History

New University of Lisbon

and

Professor of Economic History

European University Institute

Florence

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on the Contributors	ix
The Gold Standard in the Periphery: An Introduction Pablo Martín Aceña, Jaime Reis and Agustín Llona Rodríguez	1
1 Was Italy Ever on Gold? Giuseppe Tattara	18
2 The Gold Standard in Portugal, 1854–91 Jaime Reis	69
3 The Spanish Monetary Experience, 1848–1914 Pablo Martín Aceña	112
4 Aspects of the Brazilian Experience with the Gold Standard Winston Fritsch and Gustavo H. B. Franco	152
5 Chile during the Gold Standard: a Successful Paper Money Experience Agustín Llona Rodríguez	174
6 Variable Monetary Regimes in a Preindustrial Economy: Colombia, 1850–1933 José Antonio Ocampo	207
Index	253