

CHAUCER AND THE CITY

Edited by

ARDIS BUTTERFIELD

D. S. BREWER

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	xi
List of Contributors	xii
Abbreviations	xiii
Map	xiv

INTRODUCTION

1	Chaucer and the Detritus of the City Ardis Butterfield	3
---	--	---

LOCATIONS

2	Greater London Marion Turner	25
3	The Production of Space in Chaucer's London Ruth Evans	41
4	Chaucer's Poetics of Dwelling in Troilus and Criseyde Barbara Nolan	57

COMMUNITIES

5	Chaucer and the Language of London Christopher Cannon	79
6	The Canterbury Tales and London Club Culture Derek Pearsall	95
7	London and Southwark Poetic Companies: 'Si tost c'amis' and the Canterbury Tales Appendix: An Edition and Translation of Renaud de Hoiland, 'Si tost c'amis' Helen Cooper	109 117

INSTITUTIONS

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | Literary Contests and London Records in the Canterbury Tales
C. David Benson | 129 |
| 9 | The Great Household in the City: The Shipman's Tale
Elliot Kendall | 145 |
| 10 | London and Money: Chaucer's Complaint to his Purse
John Scattergood | 162 |

AFTERLIVES

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 11 | After the Fire: Chaucer and Urban Poetics, 1666–1743
Paul Davis | 177 |
| 12 | Chaucer and the Nineteenth-Century City
Helen Phillips | 193 |
| | Bibliography | 211 |
| | Index | 225 |