The Sovietization of Eastern Europe

New Perspectives on the Postwar Period

edited by Balázs Apor, Péter Apor and E. A. Rees

New Academia Publishing
Washington, DC
Contents

Foreword ix

Part I Theories of Sovietization

Introduction. The Sovietization of Eastern Europe

E. A. Rees 1

1. Sovietization as a Civilizing Mission in the West

Tarik Cyril Amar 29

Part II Technological Sovietization

2. Between American Fordism and 'Soviet Fordism': Czechoslovak way towards mass production

Valentina Fava 47

Matthias Uhl 65

Part III Consumerism and Leisure

4. 'Der werktätige Verbraucher': Defining the Socialist Consumer. Market research in GDR’ 1960s/’70s

Marcello Anselmo 77

5. Socialist Recreation? Amateur Film and Photography in the People’s Republics of Poland and East Germany

David Crowley 93
Sibylle Mohrmann

Part IV Sovietized Rituals
7. Continuity and Innovation: Itineraries of the May Day Ritual in Czechoslovakia
Roman Krakovsky

8. Spatial Aspects of the Communist Leader Cult: The Case of Mátyás Rákosi in Hungary
Balázs Apor

9. Mass Gymnastic Performances under Communism: The Case of Czechoslovak Spartakiads
Petr Roubal

10. Agitation, Organization, Mobilization. The League for Polish-Soviet Friendship in Stalinist Poland
Jan C. Behrends

Part V Sovietization and Religion
11. Mechanisms of State Control over Religious Denominations in Romania in the late 1940s and early 1950s
Anca Maria Şincan

12. Cuius regio eius religio. The Relationship of Communist Authorities with the Catholic Church in Slovenia and Yugoslavia after 1945
Mateja Režek

Part VI The Sovietization of History
13. The Sovietization of Hungarian historiography. Attempts, failures and modifications in the early 1950s
Árpád von Klimó

14. Marxist History of Historiography in Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany (late 1940s – late 1960s)
Maciej Górny
Péter Apor 265

Conclusion: Crisis of the Soviet Model and De-Sovietization
E. A. Rees 285
Notes 290
Contributors 343
Index 344