

THE LIBERATION MOVEMENT
IN RUSSIA
1900-1905

SHMUEL GALAI

Lecturer in Russian History
Tel-Aviv University

CAMBRIDGE
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS
1973

Contents

	page
Acknowledgments	vii
Note on dates, etc.	ix
List of abbreviations	x
Introduction	I
Part I ORIGINS
1 The origins of zemstvo radicalism	5
2 The beginnings of the zemstvo oppositional movement	34
3 The birth of the democratic intelligentsia	58
4 The parting of the ways	84
Part II THE FORMATION OF THE LIBERATION MOVEMENT
5 The launching of the Liberation Movement	109
6 The organization of public opinion	133
7 The intelligentsia in ascendancy	157
8 The formation of the Union of Liberation	177
Part III WAR AND REVOLUTION
9 Setback and recovery	196
10 'No enemies on the left'	214
11 Unleashing the Revolution	232
12 Defeat in victory	251
Appendix A: The origins of Beseda	273
Appendix B: A bibliographical note on the writings of Kuskova and Prokopovich in the years 1898-99	274
Appendix C: Note on sources on the formation of the Liberation Movement	276
Bibliography	277
Index	317