

The TWENTY-FIFTH
CONGRESS
OF THE CPSU:

Assessment and Context

Alexander Dallin, Editor

Hoover Institution Press 1977
Stanford University • Stanford California

Contents

Tables	vii
Preface	ix
Contributors	xi
1 Soviet Party Congresses: Intended and Unintended Consequences	1
William Zimmerman
2 The Twenty-Fifth Congress: Domestic Issues	7
George W. Breslauer
3 The Brezhnev Regime and Directed Social Change: Depoliticization as Political Strategy	26
Gail Warshofsky Lapidus
4 Science Policy and Soviet Development Strategy	39
Paul Cocks
5 The Soviet Economy Before and After the Twenty-Fifth Congress	53
Gregory Grossman
6 The Military in Soviet Politics: From the Perspective of the Twenty-Fifth Party Congress	79
Roman Kolkowicz
7 Foreign Policy: The Soviet Union and the Noncommunist World	89
Paul Marantz
8 Foreign Policy: Communist States and Parties	95
Jan F. Triska
9 Implications for Soviet-American Relations: Informal Comments	100
Helmut Sonnenfeldt
Appendix: The Central Committee of the CPSU	109
Notes	111
Abbreviations and Glossary	123
Index	125