

A 2
16

The International Relations of Eastern Europe

A GUIDE TO INFORMATION SOURCES

Volume 8 in the International Relations Information Guide Series

Robin Alison Remington

*Associate Professor of Political Science
University of Missouri
Columbia*

Gale Research Company

Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
 Part I - Eastern Europe as a Region
Chapter I - Bibliographies, References, Basic Texts	3
Chapter II - Institutional Approach	7
Chapter III - Comparative Approach	9
Chapter IV - Historical Background	23
Chapter V - Eastern Europe in the Cold War	29
Chapter VI - The Post-Stalin Era	37
A. Political Change	37
B. Economic Development	47
C. East-West Relations	53
D. China and Eastern Europe	60
Chapter VII - Nationalism as an Alternative	63
Chapter VIII - Council for Mutual Economic Assistance (CMEA) ...	69
Chapter IX - The Warsaw Treaty Organization (WTO)	85
 Part II - Country-Specific Sources
Chapter I - Albania	101
Chapter II - Bulgaria	107
Chapter III - Czechoslovakia	111
A. Prague Spring and Invasion, 1968	117
Chapter IV - East Germany	133
A. Uprising of 1953	142
B. Berlin	143
Chapter V - Hungary	149
A. The Hungarian Uprising of 1956	156
Chapter VI - Poland	163
A. The Polish October, 1956	175
Chapter VII - Rumania	177
Chapter VIII - Yugoslavia	185
A. The Yugoslav Way	185
B. Economic Background; Foreign Trade	205
C. Soviet-Yugoslav Disputes, 1948 and 1958	209
D. The Nonaligned Alternative	212

Contents

Appendix - Basic Books	217
Indexes
Author Index	227
Title Index	239
Subject Index	253