

LANDSCAPE AND SETTLEMENT IN
ROMANOV RUSSIA
1613–1917

JUDITH PALLOT
DENIS J. B. SHAW

CLARENDON PRESS · OXFORD
1990

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	x
Note on Territorial-Administrative Subdivisions	xi
Note on Transliteration and Dates	xii
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Frontier Experience in Romanov Russia: The Settlement of the Central Black Earth Region in the Seventeenth Century	33 12
2. The Odnodvortsy	33
3. The Province of Voronezh under Catherine The Great	55
4. Agricultural 'Culture Islands' in the Eastern Steppe: The Mennonites in Samara Province	79
5. Farming Regions of Russia in the Late Nineteenth Century	112
6. The Commune in the 1870s	136
7. Modernization from Above: The Stolypin Land Reform	165
8. Regional Specialization and Trade in the Late Eighteenth and Early Nineteenth Centuries	195
9. Peasant Manufacturing in Nineteenth-Century Moscow Province	218
10. City and Tsar: The State and the Towns in the Romanov Era	243
Conclusions	265
Glossary	274
Index	314