

Soviet Forest Industries

---

Peter Blandon

Westview Press / Boulder, Colorado

Contents

List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1. INTRODUCTION	1
2. A GEOGRAPHICAL BACKGROUND TO THE FOREST INDUSTRIES	9
The Soviet Union	9
Vegetation Zones of the Soviet Union	12
The Distribution of the Major Species in the Soviet Union	18
Forest Resources of the Soviet Union	26
The Russian Soviet Federation of Socialist Republics	31
Other Republics of the Soviet Union	37
Some Brief Conclusions	38
Appendix to Chapter 2	39
3. THE INDUSTRIAL FORESTS OF THE SOVIET UNION	51
Introduction	51
The General Organisation of Minlesbumprom	51
Aspects of Logging in the Soviet Union	62
4. THE HISTORY OF MECHANISATION IN LOGGING	89
Introduction	89
Basic Operations	92
Preparatory and Auxiliary Operations	112
Organisational Changes	113
Concluding Remarks	114
5. THE POSSIBILITY OF FUTURE PRODUCTIVITY INCREASES	117
Introduction	117
The Systems Planned	119
The Machines to be Introduced	128
The Potentialities of the Systems and Machines	139
Overall Increases in Labour Productivity	145
Conclusions and Implications	149
A Appendix to Chapter 5	156

6. THE LABOUR FORCE IN SOVIET FORESTRY	157
Introduction	157
A Brief History	157
Present Problems of the Labour Supply	163
Wages and Working Conditions	173
7. THE ECONOMIC SYSTEM AND FORESTRY	181
Introduction	181
The Planning System	181
Price Formation in Soviet Forestry	195
8. INDIVIDUAL ECONOMIC PROBLEMS	207
The Effectiveness of New Technology	208
The Definition of the Rotation Length	219
9. POSSIBLE RESPONSES TO THE TIMBER SHORTAGE	235
Introduction	235
Group I Forests: Their Structure and Potentialities	235
Low Quality Wood	247
The Export of Timber and Timber Products	252
10. THE WOOD PROCESSING INDUSTRIES	255
Introduction	255
Sawmilling	257
Plywood Manufacture	263
Particle Board and Fibreboard	265
Glossary of Terms	267
References	271
Index	287