

---

THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION 1900–1927

---

ROBERT SERVICE

M
MACMILLAN
EDUCATION

---

List of Contents

---

Editor's Preface	vii
Introduction	ix
A Note on References	x
1 The Unstable Compound, 1900–1914	1
St Petersburg and the world in 1900	1
The absolute monarchy before 1905	3
Economic progress	6
The transforming of Russian society	8
Social discontents	11
Political upheaval: 1905–6	13
The limits of the regime's adaptiveness	16
Social resilience and institutional growth	18
Economic problems before 1914	20
Political instability	22
2 Explosion, 1915–1917	26
War and the gathering economic crisis	26
Social commotion	28
The February Revolution of 1917	30
Aspirations in society	33
'Dual power'	35
Economic breakdown and social reactions	37
Mass organisations	40
The Bolshevik party	43
The disintegration of the state	45
The October Revolution of 1917	47
3 The Limits of Experiment, 1917–1927	50
Political euphoria	50
Economic and diplomatic prostration: 1917–18	53
Social reforms and mass participation	55
Repression	58

Civil War: 1917–21	60
Opposition to Bolshevism	65
The NEP and economic recovery: 1921–7	67
The recuperation of society	70
The party and the political system	72
Moscow and the world in 1927	76
Afterword	81
Select Bibliography	84
Maps	91
Index	93