

NATIVE FASCISM IN THE SUCCESSOR STATES
1918-1945

Edited by
Peter F. Sugar

Santa Barbara, California
1971

Table of Contents

	Page Number
Preface	i
Chapter I: Introduction	1
Lyman H. Legters, University of Washington
Chapter II: Austria	13
A. —The Background of Austrian Fascism	15
Fritz Fellner, University of Salzburg
B. — Authoritarian Austria	24
R. John Rath, Rice University
Chapter III: Czechoslovakia	45
A. —Fascism in Czechoslovakia	47
Jan Havránek, Charles University, Prague
B. — Czechoslovak Fascisms	56
Joseph F. Zacek, State University of New York, Albany
Chapter IV: Hungary	63 ✕
A. —The Problem of Fascism in Hungary	65
György Ránki, Historical Institute, Hungarian Academy of Sciences
B. — The Dragon's Teeth: The Roots of Hungarian Fascism	73
George Barany, Denver University
Chapter V: Poland	83 ✕
A. —Fascism in Poland	85
Henryk Wereszycki, Jagiellonian University, Krakow
B. — Fascism in Poland: 1918-1939	92
Piotr S. Wandycz, Yale University
Chapter VI: Romania	99
A. —The Background of Romanian Fascism	101
Emanuel Turczynski, University of Munich
B. — Fascism in Romania	112
Stephen Fischer-Galati, University of Colorado
Chapter VII: Yugoslavia	123
A. —Fascism in Yugoslavia: 1918-1941	125
Dimitrije Djordjević, Historical Institute, Serbian Academy of Sciences
B. — Yugoslavia's Fascist Movements	135
Ivan Avakumovic, University of British Columbia
Chapter VIII: Conclusion	145
Peter F. Sugar, University of Washington	