

THE REFORMS OF PETER THE GREAT

PROGRESS THROUGH
COERCION IN RUSSIA

Evgenii V. Anisimov

Translated with an introduction by John T. Alexander

M.E. Sharpe

ARMONK, NEW YORK
LONDON, ENGLAND

Contents

THE NEW RUSSIAN HISTORY
Donald J. Raleigh	vii
TRANSLATOR'S INTRODUCTION
John T. Alexander	ix
INTRODUCTION	3
FATHER OF THE FATHERLAND
The Personality of the Reformer	13
VICTORY AT ANY COST
The Narva Confusion	43
"Seek to overthrow the foe"	57
Industrialization Petrine-Style	70
"It's difficult for a man to know and direct everything sight unseen"	87
On the Roads of War: From Narva to Poltava	95
The Breakthrough: From Poltava to Hangö	123
BIRTH OF THE EMPIRE
The Realization of Peter's State Ideal	143
The Serf Economy	170
Producing the All-Russian Subject People	184
Reforming the Clerical Rank	203
"The police is the soul of the citizenry"	217
The Imperial Idea	244
HERITAGE AND HEIRS
"To whom shall I leave the planting described above?"	267

CONCLUSION	295
NOTES	299
FOR FURTHER READING	309
INDEX	313