

GEORGE CIORĂNESCU

BESSARABIA

DISPUTED LAND BETWEEN EAST AND WEST

EDITURA FUNDAȚIEI CULTURALE ROMÂNE
București, 1993

CONTENTS

A Word of Explanation	9
I. A polemicist Rewrites the History of Moldavia	14
II. The Origin of the Bessarabian Problem: the Diplomatic Talks Regarding Moldavia, Bessarabia and Wallachia (1805-1812)	22
III. Romanian Historians on Russo-Romanian Relations	34
IV. Moldavian and Western Interpretations of Modern Romanian History	40
V. Romanian-Russian Co-operation in the Context of the Independence Centenary	52
VI. Bessarabia again on the Tapis	73
VII. Romanian-Russian Relations during World War I	82
VIII. Octavian Goga's Views on the Russian Revolution and Bessarabia	94
IX. Bessarabia's Place in Nicolae Titulescu's Foreign Policy	100
X. 40th Anniversary of Annexation of Bessarabia and Northern Bucovina	108

XI.	The Problem of Bessarabia and Northern Bucovina during World War II	127
XII.	Romania's 35th Anniversary of 23 August 1944: The Role of National Forces and Soviet Army in Romania's "Liberation War"	181
XIII.	The Policy of Russification	196
XIV.	The New Constitution of the Moldavian Soviet Socialist Republic	238
XV.	Walew's Plan Raised Again the Bessarabian Issue	246
XVI.	A Political Shifting of One's Ground	255