

A Century of Russian Agriculture

by Lazar Volin

From Alexander II to Khrushchev

Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts, 1970

Contents

Introduction	1
--------------	---

Part One. Peasant and Landlord

1 Serfdom: Origins and Development	5
2 Emancipation	40
3 Land Hunger and the Agrarian Crisis	57
4 The Mir	77
5 The First Agrarian Revolution and Stolypin's Reforms	94
6 World War I and the Revolution of 1917	117

Part Two. The Peasant under Communism

7 War Communism	143
8 The New Economic Policy	161
9 Decline of the NEP and a New Offensive	189
10 Collectivization and the Ordeal of the Peasants	203
11 Collectivized Agriculture in the Prewar Period	235
12 Collectivized Agriculture and the War	274
13 Postwar Recovery	301

Contents

Part Three. Collectivized Agriculture under Khrushchev

14	Khrushchev: The Agrarian Leader and Reformer	327
15	Capital Investment and Land	346
16	Incentives and Procurements	377
17	Income and Consumer Goods	405
18	Mechanization and Electrification	444
19	Expansion of Production	481
20	State Farms	516
21	Administrative Control and Planning	536
	Summary and Outlook	557
	Note on Abbreviations	575
	Notes	577
	Index	637