

Kjell Blücker

The Church as Nation

A Study in Ecclesiology and Nationhood

PETER LANG
Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

Contents

Acknowledgements	11
Chapter 1: Introduction	13
Chapter 2: Reconstructing the Nation	27
Analytical Concepts	28
Constructing – Reconstructing 28 • Inventing 29 • Imagining 31
Items Not Put on Every Agenda	32
Isms – something timeless? 32 • Nations and nationalism – something universal? 34 • Nations and nationalism – women included? 36 • Nations and nationalism – the other included? 41
Nation and Nationalisms in History and Politics	43
The history of the concept of nation 43 • Nationalism – definitions by supporters and critics 46
Nationalism – An Ethnic Tradition	55
Ernest Gellner’s modernism: Three ages, five stages, five zones and three ethics 56 • Further periodisation of the irredentist period 65 • Nations with nationalism before the Age of Nationalism? 67 • Ethnies with cultural links to nationalism 70
The Concepts of Religion and Church in Theories of Nationalism	75
The Protestant type 75 • Secularisation 77 • Picturing the nation – manifesting the nation 80
Conclusions	83
Chapter 3: Reconstructing the Church	87
Analytical Concepts	87

In Quest of a Metaecclesiology	88
Previous studies on ecclesiology 88 • Metaecclesiology – a theoretical outline 95
Items Not Put on Every Agenda	96
Isms – something timeless? 97 • Confessional church and confessionalistic ecclesiology – something universal? 100
• Confessional church and confessionalistic ecclesiology – women included? 102 • Confessional church and confessionalistic ecclesiology – the other included? 106
Church and Confessionalistic Ecclesiology in History	109
Metaecclesiology for a Confessionalistic Church Tradition	118
First level – the ideal church 119 • Second level – the empirical church 125 • Third level – the ecclesiological frames 127
The Concept of Nation in Modern Ecclesiologies	132
Chapter 4: Reconstructing the Church as Nation	135
From Dynastic State Church to National Church	135
In quest of a new modus vivendi 136 • Nation-states and national churches as parallels 139
Reconstructing the Church of Sweden	142
Metahistory 144 • National discourse in Sweden 148 • Ecclesial discourse in the Church of Sweden 152
Chapter 5: Writing the Memory of the Swedish Church	159
Pre- and Protonationalistic Church History Writing	161
Henrik Reuterdaahl 162 • Lars Anton Anjou 165 • Carl Alfred Cornelius 166
National Church History on a Popular Level – A Bishop Writes	169
The spiritual life of Sweden's church 172 • Johan Alfred Eklund's ecclesial nationalism – a romance 191
National Church History on an Academic Level – A Professor Writes	204
The distinctive Swedish church 204 • Hjalmar Holmquist's ecclesial nationalism – a romance and a comedy 209

Minority Alternatives	212
The Fathers' Church – a Catholic alternative 212 • The Majesty of the Fatherland – a Free Church alternative 216
Conclusions	219
Chapter 6: Singing the Symbiosis of Church and Nation	223
Bodily Practices and Settings	223
The Fathers' Church	229
Text and outline 229 • Detailed analysis 230 • Summary of the outline 242
The Context of The Fathers' Church	243
Internationalism, catholicity, penitence 243 • Patriotism after 1809 – Nationalism after 1905 244 • Fragments of the Church in Symbiosis with the Nation 248
Chapter 7: Lecturing the Symbiosis of the Provisional and the Essential	259
Nathan Söderblom – A Nationalist Preaching Nationalism	261
The individual and the church 265 • Conclusions 273
Nathan Söderblom – An Internationalist Preaching Nationalism	276
Historiography 277 • A people with body and soul 282 • Unity 284 • Holiness 288 • Catholicity 289 • Apostolicity 298 • Church – state – nation 302 • Leitourgia – diakonia – martyria 304 • Conclusions 306
Chapter 8: The Swedish Church as Superideology – Conclusion, Discussion, Reflection	311
Ecclesiology in historiography	313
Eklund and Söderblom	316
Banal nationalistic ecclesiology	320
Bibliography	321
Abbreviations	353
List of Regents in Sweden from 1523	355
Index	357