

---

The Shtetl

New Evaluations

EDITED BY

Steven T. Katz

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS

NEW YORK AND LONDON

---

Contents

Editor's Note	vii
Steven T. Katz
Introduction	1
Samuel Kassow
1 The Importance of Demography and Patterns of Settlement for an Understanding of the Jewish Experience in East-Central Europe	29
Gershon David Hundert
2 A Shtetl with a Yeshiva: The Case of Volozhin	39
Immanuel Etkes
3 Rebbetzins, Wonder-Children, and the Emergence of the Dynastic Principle in Hasidism	53
Nehemia Polen
4 Two Jews, Three Opinions: Politics in the Shtetl at the Turn of the Twentieth Century	85
Henry Abramson
5 The Shtetl in Poland, 1914–1918	102
Konrad Zieliński
6 The Shtetl in Interwar Poland	121
Samuel Kassow

7	Looking at the Yiddish Landscape: Representation in Nineteenth-Century Hasidic and Maskilic Literature Jeremy Dauber	140
8	Imagined Geography: The Shtetl, Myth, and Reality Israel Bartal	179
9	Gender and the Disintegration of the Shtetl in Modern Hebrew and Yiddish Literature Naomi Seidman	193
10	Rediscovering the Shtetl as a New Reality: David Bergelson and Itsik Kipnis Mikhail Krutikov	211
11	Agnon's Synthetic Shtetl Arnold J. Band	233
12	The Image of the Shtetl in Contemporary Polish Fiction Katarzyna Więctawska	243
13	Sarny and Rokitno in the Holocaust: A Case Study of Two Townships in Wolyn (Volhynia) Yehuda Bauer	253
14	The World of the Shtetl Elie Wiesel	290
	About the Contributors	307
	Index	311