

“Hundred Flowers Bloom”

Essays in Honour of Bo Gustafsson

Edited by Kersti Ullenhag

Uppsala 1991

Distributor:

Almqvist & Wiksell International
Stockholm

Contents

Foreword	vii
Tabula gratulatoria	xi
A. Structure in the Process of Change
1. in Education
Eskil Ekstedt & Anders Forsman, To Deepen or to Widen? Knowledge Formation in the Post-industrial Economy	3
2. in Swedish Agriculture
Mats Essemyr, Var bonden jordbrukare? Vägar till försörjning på en gotländsk gård 1650–1850	11
Mats Morell, Family Farms and Agricultural Mechanization in Sweden before World War II	23
3. in Industry
Lars Magnusson, Competition and the Contest for Control. Markets and Innovations in the Industrialization Process	43
4. in Swedish Financial Markets
Håkan Lindgren, Commercial Banks as Intermediaries in the Swedish Bond Market 1924–1945	53
5. in International Trade
Mats Larsson, The Lost Market. Sweden's Trade with Eastern Europe 1975–1984	65
B. and the Role of Agents
1. in a Gender Perspective
Ulla Wikander, Personal, Historical Notes on Gender Distinctions; Inter Alia about Equality and Difference	81
2. in Swedish Agriculture
Maths Isacson, Where Have all the People Gone? The Decline in Population in Agriculture during the 20th Century	99