

Adam Mickiewicz University
Institute of Socio-Economic Geography and Space Economy

POLISH ECONOMY IN TRANSITION: SPATIAL PERSPECTIVES

Edited by
Jerzy J. Parysek and Tadeusz Stryjakiewicz

Bogucki Wydawnictwo Naukowe S.C.
Poznań 2000

Contents

Editorial	5
Tadeusz Stryjakiewicz
Implications of globalisation for regions and localities in an economy in transition: the case of Poland	7
Bolesław Domański
Types of investment and locational preferences of European, American and Asian manufacturing companies in Poland	29
Henryk Rogacki
Links of Polish regions with foreign markets in the years 1994–1998.	41
Tadeusz Stryjakiewicz, Tomasz Kaczmarek
Transborder co-operation and development in the conditions of great socio-economic disparities: the case of the Polish-German border region . .	49
Holger Muent
Localised co-operation between small firms in the socio-economic transition process in Poland. Two cases from the Poznań region	73
Jerzy J. Parysek
The role of local and regional government in planning in Poland's transforming socio-political system.	89
About the authors.	99