

On the Margins

Essays on the History of Jews in Estonia

Anton Weiss-Wendt

Central European University Press
Budapest-New York

Table of Contents

List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Preface (by Antony Polonsky)	xiii
Studying Estonian Jewish History: A Professional and Personal Journey	1
1. New in Town: Jews in Narva, 1874–1917	31
2. Thanks to the Germans! Jewish Cultural Autonomy in Interwar Estonia	69
3. The Soviet Occupation of Estonia in 1940–41 and the Jews	95
4. Accidentally Jewish: Helmut Weiss and the (Il)logic of Political Violence in Hitler’s Germany and Stalin’s Russia	115
5. Ordinary People Facing the Holocaust: The Estonian Security Police Investigation Files, 1941–42	143
6. The End Complete: The Destruction of Jews in Provincial Cities	165
7. The Business of Survival: Baltic Oil Ltd. and Jewish Forced Labor Camps in Estonia	197
8. Estonian Perpetrators of the Holocaust in the Annals of the Cold War: The Prosecution of War Criminals in the Soviet Union, 1943–1987	221
9. Why the Holocaust Does Not Matter to Estonians	243
Appendix: Primary Sources on Estonian Jewish History until 1941	277
Select Bibliography	283
Index	293