

From the World of Borders to the World of Horizons

International Cultural Centre
Cracow 2001

Contents

Jacek Purchla Instead of a Preface	5
Marion Dönhoff The Freedom Shock Eastern Europe. Between Hope and Concern	9
Jacek Woźniakowski Is Greater Europe Possible?	15
Hans Henning Hahn History and National Stereotypes	23
Andrzej Tomaszewski Central Europe as a Cultural Area	34
Antoni Podraza Historical Conditions of Cultural Progress in the Lands of the Old Polish Republic	47
Csaba G. Kiss Hungary and Its Neighbours (Questions and Dilemmas)	56
Michał Jagiełło Partnership for the Future. Remarks about Policy on Ethnic Minorities	70
Jan K. Ostrowski The Heritage of the Old Polish Republic's Historical Relics in Its Eastern Border Regions	79

Jacek Purchla
Management of Historical Cities and Market Forces. The Central European Experience		99
Stefan Muthesius
The Art of Silesia in the Light of German and Polish Art-Historical Research		112
Kazimierz Krzysztofek
Vernacular Cultures in the Face of Market Forces		127
Ákos Moravánszky
Magic Mountains – Constructing the Geography of Modernity		144
Andrzej Wajda
Culture at the Close of the 20th Century. An Attempt at Diagnosis		160
Jerzy Jedlicki
Can National Cultures Flourish in the Time of European Integration?		164
Bronius Genzelis
Changes in Stereotypes: Poles Our Enemies, Poles Our Friends		173
Gregory J. Ashworth
Heritage and Tourism: Managing the Resource Crisis		183
Erhard Busek
Europe since 1989: What Is the Future of Our Continent?		203
Mircea Martin
Europe from an Eastern Perspective. Some Notes on European Cultural Identity		214
Krzysztof Czyżewski
Kosovo: The Forgotten Art of the Fugue		231
Zdzisław Mach
Politics, Culture and Identity of the Polish People after 1989		246

Shimon Peres
From the World of Borders to the World of Horizons	256
Jeffrey C. Goldfarb
Anti-Ideology: Education and Politics as Democratic Practices	265
Władysław Stróżewski
Culture and Development	295
Adam Miłobędzki
The Protection of Monuments in Today's World	305
Emil Brix
Central Europe Revisited	310
Biographical Notes	317