THE VIEW FROM PRAGUE

The Expectations of World Leaders at the Dawn of the 21st Century

Václav Havel et al.

Edited by Jiří Musil and Tomáš Vrba

Central European University Press
Budapest New York
Contents

Editorial Note .......................................................... vii
List of Contributors ..................................................... ix
How the Idea of Forum 2000 Emerged
Jiří Musil and Takeaki Hori ........................................... 1

Part I. Our World

Spiritual Preconditions for Our Common Global Survival
Václav Havel ............................................................... 7

The World We Have Inherited, Our World Today, and Hopes for the Future
Václav Havel ............................................................... 15

Part II. Confronting International Discourse on Globalization:
Problems and Visions of Our World Today as Seen by the Participants of the Forum 2000 Conferences

The Importance of Context
Jiří Musil ............................................................... 25

How to React to a Plurality of Cultures .......................... 37

Globalization, Society and Culture
Jiří Musil ............................................................... 39

Two Examples of Socio-Cultural Disintegration Caused by Globalization
Takeaki Hori ........................................................... 85
The Importance of Religion ............................................. 93

The Transformations of Religion in the Process of Globalization
Tomáš Halík ............................................................... 95

Awareness of the Relations Between Economics, Politics, Knowledge and Ethics as a Starting Point for Global Governance ............. 135

Political Globalization
Jiří Pehe ................................................................. 137

Economy in the Background of Many Discussions on Social and Ethical Problems .................................................. 165

An Economic View of the World
Jana Marková ............................................................. 167

The Global Environmental Situation and Human Responsibility ... 187

Global Environmental Problems
Václav Mezřický .......................................................... 189

The View of an Observer ................................................ 221

Both the Rationality of Precise Analysis and the Naivety of Ideals Are Needed
Vladimír Karfík ............................................................ 223

Why Forum 2000?
Václav Havel ............................................................... 237

Appendixes
Prague Declaration ....................................................... 243

Illustrations ................................................................. 267