

MART MÄNNIK

A TANGLED WEB

A BRITISH SPY IN ESTONIA

The memoirs of an Estonian who fell into the clutches of MI6 and the KGB

Translated and introduced by
The Earl of Carlisle

Dedicated to the memory of the late Mart Männik 1930–1998,
to his son Allan and grandson Martin
and to the Männik family
and for

Lieutenant Colonel The Lord Wigram of Clewer MC and

Major General Sir Evelyn Webb-Carter KCVO OBE, the Honourable Lady Webb-Carter, Clive and Pippa, Helen and Rose with admiration and affection.

GRENADER

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ( The Earl of Carlisle )	7
Introduction ( The Earl of Carlisle )	9
Preface	20
I At Home and at School	23
II In the German Army	34
III As a Refugee in Germany and England	49
IV In the British Secret Service	56
V Back to Estonia	66
VI Arrest	80
Postscript
British Secret Intelligence Operations in Estonia 1951–1956 ( Pekka Ereht )	94
A spy who came back from the dead ( Pekka Ereht )	96
Afternote ( Allan Männik )	100
Appendices
I Colonel Alfons Rebane ( The Earl of Carlisle )	102
II Estonia. Nation, People, Language ( The Earl of Carlisle )	105
III Letter to The Earl of Carlisle from H.E. Mr. Matthew Kirk, Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador to Finland 2002–2006	108
Photographs	109
Index	117