

DAGMAR GRAMSHAMMER-HOHL (ED.)

Aging in Slavic Literatures

Essays In Literary Gerontology

[transcript]

Contents

Preface | 7

Introduction

Dagmar Gramshammer-Hohl | 9

Beyond Ageism, Beyond Sexism

Gender Issues, Aging and Sexuality in

Vedrana Rudan's Novel The Skeletons of Madison County

Marija Geiger Zeman & Zdenko Zeman (Zagreb) | 17

Growing Old to Remember

The "Final Questions" of a Hundred-Year-Old

Ukrainian Villager

Liana Goletiani (Milan) | 37

Aging and Old Age in Popular Autobiographies from Bratislava and Vienna

Ľubica Vofanská (Bratislava) | 65

Old Age and Ageing in People and Books

David Albahari's Tsing

Andrea Zink (Innsbruck) | 89

"My Diary That Grows Old with Me"

Representations of Old Age and Ageing in Women's Diaries
of the Soviet Era

Irina Savkina (Tampere) | 105

Alternative Narratives of Aging in Russian 20th-Century Literature

Valentin Rasputin's and Jurij Trifonov's Old Characters

Ilaria Remonato (Verona) | 131

Gendered Perspectives on Sexuality, Body and Aging in Slovene Autobiographical Literature

Mrak – Zupan – Kovačič

Andreas Leben (Graz) | 165

Exile, Return and “the Relative Brevity of Our Life”: Aging in Slavic Homecoming Narratives

Nabokov – Kundera – Jergović

Dagmar Gramshammer-Hohl (Graz) | 185

Fearing the Joys of Old Age

Contradictory Discourses of Aging in Adelaida Gercyk's
On Old Age

Dimitrios Meletis (Graz) | 203

“I Know Nothing Because of My Weakness”

A Comparative Analysis of Polish Letters and Memoirs (1845-1862)

Wiesława Duży (Opava) | 223

Aging in Renaissance Dalmatia

The Case of Petar Hektorović

Natalia Stagl-Škaro (Dubrovnik) | 239

The Elderly and Old Age in a Russian Chronicle

Nicoletta Cabassi (Parma) | 263

Contributors | 279