

THE HISTORY OF MUSIC IN POLAND

editor
Stefan Sutkowski

- I The Middle Ages – part 1
- I The Middle Ages – part 2 (pub. 2002)
- II The Renaissance
- III The Baroque – part 1 (pub. 2003)
- III The Baroque – part 2
- IV The Classical Era
- V The Romantic Era – part 1
- V The Romantic Era – part 2
- VI Between the Romantic Era and the Modern Era
- VII The Modern Era – part 1
- VII The Modern Era – part 2

THE HISTORY OF MUSIC IN POLAND

Katarzyna Morawska

THE RENAISSANCE

1500-1600

translated by John Comber

Sulkowski Edition, Warsaw

2002

LIST OF CONTENTS

From the publisher	11
--------------------------	----

INTRODUCTION

1. General Remarks. Chronological and Territorial Scope. Characteristics of Material Basis	13
2. The Jagiellon Dynasty as a European Power	25
3. Synoptic Tables. Chronological Lay-out of the Most Important Events in the History of Music, General History and the History of Science and the Arts in Poland and the Rest of the World Between 1500–1600	33
4. List of Abbreviations	49

MUSICAL CULTURE IN POLAND IN THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY

1. The General Character of Musical Culture. Traditions and Principal Paths of Development	53
II. International Contacts. The Import of Musicians, Musical Items, Instruments. The Adoption of Models of Musical Life, Music Printing and Schooling. The Decline in Popularity of Cracow Academy. Poles Abroad – Studies, Employment Abroad, and Others	56
III. The Organisation of Musical Life in Poland in the Sixteenth Century. Main Focuses (Ensembles, Musicians, Centres)	66
1. Music at the Courts. The Jagiellonian Royal Court – the Functions of Music: Representative, Military, Liturgical, Entertainment. Changes in the Organisation of Music at the Court Under the Reign of Zygmunt III Vasa, the Expansion of Royal Patronage, Music for the Stage, Ballets. The Courts of Magnates and of Secular and Ecclesiastic Dignitaries – Vocal and Instrumental Ensembles, Solo Music. Secular Music-making, Dance and Song at the Manors of the Nobility	66
2. Music in Centres of Religious Worship. Catholic Places of Worship (Cathedrals, Smaller Parish Churches); Founding of the Rorantist Collegium (1543) on Wawel Hill in Cracow; Organists; Devotional Fraternities; Music in the Cloisters of Various Monastic Orders; Music of the Church Fellowships; Orthodox Churches, Reformed Churches of Various Faiths Developing Mainly Around the Mid-Sixteenth Century	71

3. Music in the Towns and Cities. Itinerant Musicians, Musicians Employed by Municipal Authorities, Musicians Guilds (e.g. Lviv, Cracow, Gdansk); Musical Life in the Cities	79
IV. Musical Performance and Repertoire.....	89
1. The General Character of Performance Practice.....	89
2. Performance Apparatus. The Human Voice. Instruments. The Popularity of the Organ	90
3. The Social Functioning of Instruments.....	93
4. Solo and Ensemble Music-making. The Forming of Instrumental Ensembles	95
5. Instrument Construction. Violin-making and Organ-building	96
6. Musical Repertoire. Resources of Musical Items, Prints and Copies of the Works of Foreign Composers. The Repertoires of Particular Centres of Music-making. Links to Repertoire Tradition	98
V. The Ways in Which Music was Transmitted.....	111
1. Music Printing. Cracow Publishing Houses. Reformational Printing Works	111
2. The Work of Scriptoria.....	113
3. The Notation of Vocal Music and Tablature Scores.....	114
VI. Musical Schooling. Cracow Academy and its Filials. Gymnasium Schools. Parish and Cloister Schools. Reformational Schools. Jesuit Schools. The Programme of Study	117
VII. The Theory of Music.....	126
1. Hand-written and Printed Polish Musical Treatises and Articles from the first half of the Century. Sebastian of Felsztyn (born c.1480, died 1552?), Marek of Plock, Jerzy Liban of Legnica (b. 1464, d. after 1546), Marcin Kromer (b. 1512, d. 1589) and others	126
2. Foreign Treatises Familiar and Preserved in Poland. Sources, Authorities and Models Referred to and Employed by Polish Theorists and Music Teachers, Including the Works of Boethius, Johannes de Muris and Franchinus Gafurius	129
3. General Remarks on Music Theory. The Character of Theoretical Treatises, the Textbook, the Compilation. Basic Themes – the Principles of Chant Music, Mensural Notation, Issues of Composition (Counterpoint), Performance Practice (Plainsong Accent)	130
4. Remarks on Music by Various Authors: Writers, Philosophers, Politicians and Theologians.....	135

MUSICAL OUTPUT IN POLAND IN THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY

I. The General Character of Musical Output in Poland in the Sixteenth Century	143
II. Vocal and Vocal-Instrumental Music	148
1. The Polyphonic Mass. The Cycle and Individual Movements of the Ordinary of the Mass	148
a. Types of Text and Musical Setting of the Mass. The Character of Sources and the Problem of the Identification of the Writer of Mass Compositions.....	148
b. Mass Sources from the first half of the Sixteenth Century from Organ Tablatures. Organ Masses (Fragments of Organ Tablatures from c.1520; after 1528, Tablature from the Cloister of the Holy Spirit in Cracow from c.1548, Tablature of Jan of Lublin from c.1537-48). Composers and Intabulators. Polish Composers Known by Monograms: N.C. (Mikołaj of Cracow), N. and N.Z. (unidentified). The Masses and Mass Movements of Heinrich Finck. The Works of Foreign Composers (Heinrich Isaac, Josquin des Prés) as an Important Part of the Mass Musical Repertoire in the first half of the Sixteenth Century. Issues Relating to the Performance of Organ Masses.....	150
c. Mass Composition in the second half of the Sixteenth Century. Extant Works by Marcin of Lviv (died c.1589), Tomasz of Szadek (born c.1550, died c.1611), Krzysztof Borek (d. after 1573) and Krzysztof Klabon (d. after 1610). Tablature Sources from c.1580. Mass Movements by Composers Known by the Monograms J.S. (Jakub Sowa, d. 1594) and D.C.C. (Krzysztof Klabon).....	155
d. The Musical Style of Settings of the Mass in Sixteenth-century Polish Sources.....	169
2. The Motet and other Vocal and Vocal-Instrumental Polyphonic Forms....	173
a. Initial Remarks on the Character of Polish Motet Composition in the Sixteenth Century. Motet Form and Style, Links to Song Form. Types of Transmission.....	173
b. Sources of Motet Composition from the first half of the Sixteenth Century. Jerzy Liban of Legnica (b. 1464, d. after 1546), Sebastian of Felsztyn (born c.1480, d. 1552?), Organ Tablatures and the Works of the Composers Known under the Monograms N.C. (Mikołaj of Cracow), N.Z. and N.Ch. (Mikołaj of Chrzanów, born c.1480, d. 1562), and Severinus Konij (Seweryn Koń)	176
c. Construction Details of the Polyphony in the Motet of the First Half of the Sixteenth Century. The Treatment of the Cantus Firmus. The Arrangement of Voices – Texture. Polyphonic Devices. Tonality. Architectonics	184

d.	Repertoire Transmitted Anonymously. Tablatures and Other Sources	191
e.	Sources of Motet Composition from the second half of the Sixteenth Century. Tablature and Mensural Sources. Composers Known by Name and by Monogram	197
f.	The Motet Based on Cantus Firmus Technique. Jakub Sowa, Marcin of Warta (second half of 16th c.), Tomasz Szadek (born c.1550, died c.1611), Walenty Gawara (end of 16th c.), Marcin Paligonius (end of 16th c.). The Treatment of the Cantus Firmus. Architectonics. Setting of Sequences, Hymns, Psalms, Magnificats, Lamentations and Passions. The Oeuvre of Jan Brant (born c.1554, d. 1602)	200
g.	The Through-Imitated Motet. Wacław of Szamotuly (b. after 1520, died c.1560), Marcin of Lviv (born c.1589)	210
h.	Motets from the Turn of the Century. The Beginnings of Poly-choral Technique	216
3.	Monophonic and Polyphonic Song in Poland in the Sixteenth Century.....	221
a.	Initial Remarks. Song Types	221
b.	Polyphonic Song Repertoire.....	222
c.	Characteristics of Monophonic and Polyphonic Song.....	227
d.	Issues Related to Song Texts.....	229
e.	Sources for Song in Poland in the Sixteenth Century. Organ Tablatures from the First Half of the Century: the Tablature of Jan of Lublin from c.1537-48, the Tablature from the Cloister of the Holy Spirit in Cracow from c.1548. Music for the Lute from the Second Half of the Century: the Strzeszkowski Tablature, Works by Bálint Bakfark (b. 1507, d. 1576), Diomedes Cato (born c.1560, d. after 1603?). Cantionals – Types and Historical Significance. The Writers of Collections of Single-voice Songs: Jan Seklucjan (born c.1510-15, d. 1578), Jan Zaremba (first half of the Sixteenth Century), Jakub Lubelczyk (mid-Sixteenth Century), Daniel of Łęczycza (born c.1530, d. 1600), Stanisław Sudrowski (b. 1550, d. 1600), Krzysztof Kraiński (b. 1556, d. 1618). Collections from the Benedictine Sisters Cloister in Staniątka. Bohemian Cantionals and other Cantionals Published and Used in Poland. Collections of Polyphonic Songs: Compilatory Cantionals – the Puławski and Zamoyski Cantionals, Summa Nabożeństwa, the Collection of Piotr Artomiusz (b. 1552, d. 1609). Single Prints of Songs Published in Cracow. The Repertoire of Processional Songs. Insertions in Liturgical Books. Original Songs by Wacław of Szamotuly (born c.1535, d. after 1570?), Mikołaj Gomółka (b. 1535, d. after 1591), Krzysztof Klapon (d. after 1510) and Diomedes Cato (born c.1560, d. after 1603?)	233
f.	Monophonic Song. Origins and Sources of Melodies. Types of Monophonic Song. Single-part Psalms. Psalterz Lubelczyka [The

	Lubelczyk Psalter]. The Significance of Monody in the Shaping of Polyphonic Song	244
g.	Polyphonic Song. Types of Song. Song in Instrumental Arrangement. Songs with Elements of Imitation. Songs with Ornamental Counterpoint. Songs in Note-against-note Counterpoint. The Song Compositions of Waclaw of Szamotuły (b. after 1520, died c.1560) and Cyprian Bazylik (born c.1535, d. after 1570?). The Song Compositions of Mikolaj Gomółka (b. 1535, d. after 1591).	249
h.	Untypical Phenomena in Sixteenth-century Polish Song. Songs Employing Melodic, Harmonic and Rhythmic Formulae Popular in Sixteenth-century European Music. Cantus Firmus Rhythmisation. The Songs of Krzysztof Klabon (d. after 1610). The Interest of Musicians in Ancient Metrics.	269
4.	Roman Chant	287
a.	The Question of Local Traits of Chant. Melody, Treatment of Repertoire, Domestic Parachant Output	287
b.	The Council of Trent and Liturgical Chant in Poland at the end of the Sixteenth Century	290
c.	Hand-written Sources and Prints of Chant in Poland in the Sixteenth Century	292
d.	Music in Ceremonies of Worship. The Polish Liturgical Rite	296
e.	Chant and Parachant Forms	298
III.	Instrumental Music	309
1.	Music for the Organ and other Keyboard Instruments	309
a.	Sources of Organ Music. Tablatures: of Jan of Lublin from c.1537-48, from the Cloister of the Holy Spirit in Cracow from c.1548, of Warsaw Music Society, Recently Dubbed the Łowicz Tablature, from c.1580, the Zamkowa [Castle] Tablature from c.1580, the Gdansk Tablature from c.1591, and that of Jan Fischer of Morąg from c.1595. Compositional Output in Foreign and Later Sources: Piotr of Družno (d. 1611), Diomedes Cato (b. 1560, d. after 1603?)	309
b.	The Repertoire of Tablatures for Keyboard Instruments	313
c.	Forms and Types of Music for Keyboard Instruments. Original Instrumental Works (Preludes and Fantasias), Intabulations of Vocal Works and Compositions for Instrumental Ensembles, Dances	314
2.	Lute Music	327
a.	Sources of Lute Music. The Strzeszkowski Tablature. The Output of Composer-Lutenists: Bálint Bakfark (b. 1507, d. 1576), Benedykt of Družno (born c.1520, died c.1580), Jakub Polak-Reys (died c.1605), Wojciech Długoraj (b. 1557 (?), d. after 1619?), Diomedes Cato (born c.1560, d. after 1603?)	327

b. Foreign and Domestic Lute Repertoire. Original Works for the Lute (Preludes, Fantasias), Intabulations of Vocal Works, Dances	330
3. Instrumental Music for Ensembles. The Compositions of Diomedes Cato (born c.1560, d. after 1603?) and Mikołaj Zieleński (turn of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries). Polish Dances	339
IV. The Turn of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries	354
1. The Oeuvre of Mikołaj Zieleński	354
2. Closing Remarks	364
V. Bibliography	365
1. New Source Editions. Anthologies and other Collections in Chronological Order, with a List of Compositions from the Sixteenth Century	365
2. Catalogues, Bibliographies, Dictionaries	384
3. Publications on the History of Music	386
a. General Publications.....	386
b. Monographs and Other Studies	388
4. Supplementary Literature	423
VI. List of Musical Examples	431
VII. Index of Sources, Titles of Works, Names and Places	435