

Alexander Maxwell (ed.)

The East–West Discourse

Symbolic Geography and its Consequences

PETER LANG

Oxford · Bern · Berlin · Bruxelles · Frankfurt am Main · New York · Wien

Contents

ALEXANDER MAXWELL

- Introduction
Bridges and Bulwarks:
A Historiographic Overview of East–West Discourses 1

GLYN PARRY

- 1 Conceptions of the East: Medieval and Early Modern Europe 33

FLORIAN GASSNER

- 2 Becoming a Western Nation:
German National Identity and the Image of Russia 51

ANDREW KIER WISE

- 3 Russia as Poland's Civilizational "Other" 73

VESNA DRAPAC

- 4 Yugoslav Studies and the East–West Dichotomy 93

SACHA DAVIS

- 5 East–West Discourses in Transylvania:
Transitional Erdély, German-Western Siebenburgen or Latin-Western Ardeal? 127

CHRISTOPHER BROWNING AND MARKO LEHTI

- 6 Geographic Centrality and Marginality:
East, West and North in Finnish Symbolic Geography 155

MEHMET DOSEMECI

- 7 How Turkey Became a Bridge between “East” and “West”:
The EEC and Turkey’s Great Westernization Debate,
1960–1980 169

NELLY BEKUS

- 8 East, West or “In Between”?
Three Post-Communist Concepts of the Belarusian Nation 191

- Notes on Contributors 213

- Index 217