

The Politics of Self-Determination

Remaking Territories and National Identities in Europe, 1917–1923

VOLKER PROTT

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Maps and Tables	ix
Introduction	1
I. PLANNING THE POST-WAR ORDER
1. Tying up the Loose Ends of National Self-Determination: British, French, and American Peace Planning, 1917–1919	21
2. ‘Réintégration pure et simple’: Reinventing the Franco-German Border of Alsace-Lorraine, 1914–1918	54
3. The Cradle of Civilization on the Fringes of Europe: The Quest for Greek Expansion into Asia Minor	83
II. IMPLEMENTING THE PARIS SYSTEM
4. The Interwar Period in a Microcosm: Negotiating Borders at the Paris Peace Conference	113
5. Ethno-Political Drifts: The Return of French Rule to Alsace-Lorraine, 1918–1919	148
6. A Precarious Border Zone: Ethnic Violence and the Greek–Turkish War of 1919–1922	180
7. Revisiting the Peace Architecture: Border Changes and Minority Rights in the League of Nations	212
Conclusion	234
Bibliography	245
Index	261