

Echoes of the Holocaust

Historical Cultures
in Contemporary Europe

Edited by Klas-Göran Karlsson and Ulf Zander

NORDIC ACADEMIC PRESS

Contents

Preface	7
The Holocaust as a Problem of Historical Culture Theoretical and Analytical Challenges Klas-Göran Karlsson	9
Calendar, Context and Commemoration Establishing an Israeli Holocaust Remembrance Day Mikael Tossavainen	59
The Presence of the Holocaust Vergangenheitsbewältigung in West Germany, East Germany and Austria Pär Frohnert	81
Ambivalence, Bivalence and Polyvalence Historical Culture in the German-Polish Borderlands Kristian Gerner	115
The Jedwabne Killings – A Challenge for Polish Collective Memory The Polish Debate on Neighbours Barbara Törnquist-Plewa	141
Their Genocide, or Ours? The Holocaust as a Litmus Test of Czech and Slovak Identities Tomas Sniegon	177

The Holocaust and Russian Historical Culture A Century-Long Perspective Klas-Göran Karlsson	201
From Famine to Forgotten Holocaust The 1932–1933 Famine in Ukrainian Historical Cultures Johan Öhman	223
Holocaust at the Limits Historical Culture and the Nazi Genocide in the Television Era Ulf Zander	255
About the Authors	293