

ESSAYS IN ECONOMIC SEMANTICS

NEW YORK
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

	Preface to the Paperbound Edition
	Preface by the Editor
Section One	INTRODUCTION	1
	On The Cultivation Of Economic Semantics	3
Section Two	SEMANTIC ISSUES IN ECONOMIC METHODOLOGY	7
	Statics And Dynamics: Kaleidoscopic Words	9
	Equilibrium And Disequilibrium: Misplaced Concreteness And Disguised Politics	43
	Structure And Structural Change: Weaselwords And Jargon	73

CONTENTS

	Micro- And Macro-Economics: Contested Boundaries And Claims Of Superiority	97
Section Three	SEMANTIC ISSUES IN VALUE THEORY	145
	Marginal Analysis And Empirical Research	147
	On The Meaning Of The Marginal Product	191
	Reply To Professor Takata	207
Section Four	SEMANTIC ISSUES IN MACRO- ECONOMICS AND ECONOMIC POLICY	211
	Forced Or Induced Saving: An Exploration Into Its Synonyms And Homonyms	213
	Another View Of Cost-Push And Demand-Pull Inflation	241
	Disputes, Paradoxes, And Dilemmas Concerning Economic Development	269
	Index	303