

Approaches to Development Studies

Essays in honour of Athole Mackintosh

edited by
IAN LIVINGSTONE

Gower

Contents

Preface: Athole Mackintosh, 1926 - 1977 M.L.O. Faber	vii
Introduction I. Livingstone	xxi
I Alternative Approaches in Development Studies
1    The Development of Development Economics I. Livingstone	3
2    Teaching Economics Principles as Part of Development Studies J. Cameron, K. Cole and C. Edwards	29
3    Techniques of Land Assessment and the Teaching of Natural Resource Development D.G.R. Belshaw	53
II Science and Technology for Development
4    Appropriate Science, Research and Technology A. Pain	83
5    The Organisation and Application of Research in the Arid Zones: an evaluation of change P.R. Baker	93
III Regional, Rural and Natural Resource Development Planning
6    The Future of Labourers in the West Central Region of Nepal P. Blaikie, J. Cameron, D. Seddon	123
7    Regional Planning in Tanzania: the choice of methodology for Iringa Region D.G.R. Belshaw	145
8    Integrated Rural Development: a Tanzanian case study I. Livingstone and A. Hazlewood	181
9    National Planning and Provincial Decentralisation in Papua New Guinea J.K. Hinchliffe	197
10    Skimming without Skinning, or the use of models in mineral concession negotiations M.L.O. Faber	217

IV Development and Distribution

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 11 | The Mode of Production Controversy: themesand problems of the debateJ. Harriss     | 245 |
| 12 | Public Wealth and Private Poverty inRural AfricaC. Elliott                         | 297 |
| 13 | An Approach to Production and DistributionPlanning for Developing EconomiesM. Kant | 321 |