

Colouring the Caribbean

Race and the art of Agostino Brunias

Mia L. Bagneris

Manchester University Press

Contents

List of figures	vi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Brunias's tarred brush, or painting Indians black: race-ing the Carib divide	39
2 Merry and contented slaves and other island myths: representing Africans and Afro-Creoles in the Anglo-American world	92
3 Brown-skinned booty, or colonising Diana: mixed-race Venuses and Vixens as the fruits of imperial enterprise	136
4 Can you find the white woman in this picture? Brunias's 'ladies' of ambiguous race	182
Coda – Pushing Brunias's buttons, or rebranding the plantocracy's painter: the afterlife of Brunias's imagery	215
Index	240