

Art History after Deleuze and Guattari

EDITED BY SJOERD VAN TUINEN
AND STEPHEN ZEPKE

LEUVEN UNIVERSITY PRESS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Art History After Deleuze and Guattari Sjoerd van Tuinen and Stephen Zepke	7
Remake/Remodel: Strategies of Reading Art Historians Vlad Ionescu	21
Egon Schiele: Vitalist Deleuzian Elisabeth von Samsonow	43
The Logic of Sensation and Logique de la sensation as Models for Experimental Writing on Images James Elkins	61
Rhythm and Chaos in Painting: Deleuze's Formal Analysis, Art History, and Aesthetics after Henri Maldiney Claudia Blümle	69
Deleuze and Didi-Huberman on Art History Gustavo Chirolla and Juan Fernando Mejía Mosquera	91
Colliding Chaoïds in Iconology Sascha Freyberg	105
The Image and the Problem of Expression: Towards an Aesthetic Cosmology Bertrand Prévost	125
The Late and the New: Mannerism and Style in Art History and Philosophy Sjoerd van Tuinen	145
Tintoretto's Michelangelo: An Artistic Diagram as the a priori of Art History Kamini Vellodi	165

Painting Machines, "Metallic Suicide" and Raw Objects: Deleuze and Guattari's Anti-Oedipus in the context of French Post-War Art Ann-Cathrin Drews	195
The Buren Times Éric Alliez with the collaboration of Jean-Claude Bonne	217
'A work of art does not contain the least bit of information': Deleuze and Guattari and Contemporary Art Stephen Zepke	237
Art's Utopia: The Geography of Art against (its) History Antoine L'Heureux	255
About the authors	275