

CITY OF THE SOUL ROME AND THE ROMANTICS

JOHN A. PINTO

The Morgan Library & Museum, NEW YORK

The University Press of New England, HANOVER AND LONDON

The Foundation for Landscape Studies, NEW YORK

CONTENTS

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Director's Foreword | 9 |
|---------------------|---|

|                                                            |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| John A. Pinto and Meg Pinto, Rome: City of the Soul | 11 |
|------------------------------------------------------------|----|

|                                   |    |
|-----------------------------------|----|
| THE GREATEST THEATRE IN THE WORLD | 35 |
|-----------------------------------|----|

|                                                                                                                  |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. Paul Marie Letarouilly, Plan of Rome                                                                   | 36 |
| 2. John Robert Cozens, Rome from the Villa Mellini                                                        | 38 |
| 3. James Anderson, Panorama of Rome from the Prati di Castello                                            | 40 |
| 4. Jacques-Louis David, The Campidoglio                                                                   | 42 |
| 5. Louis-Jean Desprez, The Girandola at Castel Sant'Angelo                                                | 44 |
| 6. Giacomo Quarenghi, Colonnade of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome                                           | 46 |
| 7. Joseph Mallord William Turner, Interior of St. Peter's Basilica                                        | 48 |
| 8. Christoffer W. Eckersberg, Piazza del Fontanone                                                        | 50 |
| 9. Luigi Rossini, Panorama of Rome from the Piazza Montecavallo                                           | 52 |
| 10. Thomas Hartley Crome, The Via Sistina and the Palazzo Zuccaro from the Trinità dei Monti              | 54 |
| 11. Alfred Guesdon, Bird's-Eye View of Rome with Piazza del Popolo in the Foreground                      | 56 |
| 12. Félix and Philippe Benoist, The Vatican Palace and Gardens Seen from the Dome of St. Peter's          | 58 |
| 13. Reverend Calvert Richard Jones, The Equestrian Monument of Marcus Aureliuson the Capitoline Hill | 60 |
| 14. Robert Turnbull Macpherson, The Spanish Steps                                                         | 62 |
| 15. Tommaso Cuccioni, The Theatre of Marcellus                                                            | 64 |
| 16. James Anderson, The Piazza Navona Flooded                                                             | 66 |
| 17. Gioacchino Altobelli, The Attack on Porta Pia                                                         | 68 |

|                |    |
|----------------|----|
| SPEAKING RUINS | 71 |
|----------------|----|

|                                                                                                       |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 18. Josephus Augustus Knip, Temple of Minerva Medica                                           | 72 |
| 19. Johann Adam Klein, The Basilica of Constantine, Rome                                       | 74 |
| 20. Lancelot-Théodore, Comte Turpin de Crissé, The Arch of Constantine Seen from the Colosseum | 76 |

|                                                                               |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 21. Jean-Baptiste Camille Corot, The Arch of Constantine and the Forum | 78 |
| 22. Joseph-Philibert Girault de Prangey, Round Temple by the Tiber     | 80 |
| 23. Frédéric Flachéron, The Temple of Castor in the Roman Forum        | 82 |
| 24. Reverend Calvert Richard Jones, The Interior of the Colosseum      | 84 |
| 25. Ippolito Caffi, The Colosseum Illuminated by Bengal Lights         | 86 |

RUS IN URBE: VILLAS, GARDENS, AND FOUNTAINS 89

|                                                                                                     |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 26. Charles Percier and Pierre-François-Léonard Fontaine, Courtyard of the Villa Giulia      | 90  |
| 27. Christoffer W. Eckersberg, The Church of SS. Giovanni e Paolo Seen from the Villa Casali | 92  |
| 28. Achille-Etna Michallon, The Ruin Folly of the Villa Borghese                             | 94  |
| 29. Gustav Wilhelm Palm, Entrance to the Giardino del Lago, Villa Borghese, Rome             | 96  |
| 30. Alfred-Nicolas Normand, Statue of the Goddess Roma in the Gardens of the Villa Medici    | 98  |
| 31. Edgar Degas, View of the Villa Borghese from the Gardens of the Villa Medici             | 100 |
| 32. Gustave Le Gray and Firmin-Eugène Le Dien, Bernini's Triton Fountain                     | 102 |

MAGICK LAND 105

|                                                                                                 |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 33. Sir William Gell, Map of Rome and Its Environs                                       | 106 |
| 34. Louis-François Cassas, Landscape with Arch of Drusus                                 | 108 |
| 35. Thomas Jones, View of the Villa of Maecenas at Tivoli and the Villa d'Este at Tivoli | 110 |
| 36. Robert Turnbull Macpherson, Panorama of Tivoli and the Falls of the Anio River       | 112 |
| 37. Luigi Rossini, The Serapeum at Hadrian's Villa                                       | 114 |
| 38. Edward Lear, Panoramic View of Tivoli, with Group of Peasants in Foreground          | 116 |
| 39. Edward Lear, Ruins of the Villa Sette Bassi, near Rome                               | 118 |
| 40. François-Marius Granet, Dusk, Monte Mario, Rome                                      | 120 |
| 41. James Anderson, The Arch of Nero                                                     | 122 |
| 42. Friedrich Preller the Elder, The Ponte Nomentano, near Rome                          | 124 |

WRITTEN FROM ROME 127

|                                                                                  |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 43. Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres, Letter to Marie-Anne-Julie Forestier   | 128 |
| 44. Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres, Portrait of Guillaume Guillon-Lethière | 130 |
| 45. George Gordon Byron, Childe Harold's Pilgrimage: Canto the Fourth     | 132 |
| 46. Sir William Gell, Letter to Richard Payne Knight                      | 134 |
| 47. Domenico Amici, Two Visitors to the Tomb of Bertie Bertie Mathew      | 136 |

|                                                                         |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 48. Charles Dickens, Letter to Georgina Hogarth                  | 138 |
| 49. Bartolomeo Pinelli, Carnival Scene                           | 140 |
| 50. Margaret Fuller, Letter to Elizabeth Hoar                    | 142 |
| 51. George Housman Thomas, Panorama of Rome                      | 144 |
| 52. Nathaniel Hawthorne, Italian Notebooks                       | 146 |
| 53. James Anderson, The Trevi Fountain                           | 148 |
| 54. William Cullen Bryant, Letters of a Traveller, Second Series | 150 |
| 55. Wilkie Collins, Letter to Charles Ward                       | 152 |

|                                         |     |
|-----------------------------------------|-----|
| FROM DRAWING AND ETCHING TO PHOTOGRAPHY | 155 |
|-----------------------------------------|-----|

|                                                                                             |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 56. Giovanni Battista Piranesi, Catalogue of Published Works                         | 156 |
| 57. Robert Turnbull Macpherson, Macpherson's Photographs                             | 158 |
| 58. Giovanni Battista Piranesi, View of the Ponte Sant'Angelo and Castel Sant'Angelo | 160 |
| 59. Gioacchino Altobelli, The Tiber with Castel Sant'Angelo and St. Peter's          | 162 |
| 60. Attributed to Pierre-Henri de Valenciennes, Grotto of the Nymph Egeria           | 164 |
| 61. Robert Turnbull Macpherson, The Grotto of Egeria                                 | 166 |
| 62. Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres, View of S. Maria Maggiore                         | 168 |
| 63. Francesco Adriano de Bonis, S. Maria Maggiore                                    | 170 |
| 64. Achille-Etna Michallon, View of the Trinità dei Monti                            | 172 |
| 65. Pompeo Molins, The Fountain of the Villa Medici                                  | 174 |
| 66. Three Roman Guidebooks                                                                  | 176 |
| 67. Domenico Amici, Album of Roman Views                                             | 178 |

|                                 |     |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| Notes                           | 180 |
| Works Cited in Abbreviated Form | 187 |
| Acknowledgments                 | 198 |
| Index                           | 199 |