

FINANCING THE WORLD ECONOMY IN THE NINETIES

Edited by

Jac. J. Sijben

Professor of Monetary Economics at Tilburg University and the Post-Graduate School of Banking and Finance, Tilburg Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS), Tilburg University, Tilburg, The Netherlands

KLUWER ACADEMIC PUBLISHERS

DORDRECHT / BOSTON / LONDON

TILBURG INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDIES

Contents

Preface		vii
Introduction: J. Sijben
External disequilibria and the burden of economic adjustment in the world economy		1
Chapter 1. H. Witteveen:
Opening address		15
Chapter 2. R. Dornbusch:
The need for further dollar depreciation		19
Commentary by E. Bomhoff		35
Chapter 3. H. Bockelmann:
The need for worldwide coordination of economic policies		39
Commentary by P. Korteweg		54
Chapter 4. D. Snijders:
Global company and world financial markets		59
Commentary by S. de Jong		75

Chapter 5.	C. Oort:
	The impact of the quality of debts for the vulnerability of the international banking system	79
	Commentary by A. Vleminckx	97
Chapter 6.	G. van Roij:
	The international interbank-market and the stability of the banking system	107
About the contributors		155