

EUROPEAN MONOGRAPHS

The Liberalization of State Monopolies in the European Union and Beyond

Editor:

Damien Geradin

KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL

THE HAGUE - LONDON - BOSTON

Table of Contents

Foreword vii

Introduction he

The Liberalization of the Economy of the European Union:
The Game is not (yet) Over

Karel van Miert 1

I. SECTORAL ANALYSIS OF THE LIBERALIZATION POLICY OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

Telecommunications

Pierre Larouche 15

Energy (Electricity and Natural Gas)

Piet Jan Slot 49

Air Transport

Ben Van Houtte 67

Comments

Alan Ryan 99

Rail Transport

Andre Meyer 103

Comments

Guillaume Normand 129

Postal Services

Vicenzo Visco Comandini 135

Comments

Raoul Stewardson 173

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II. CONSEQUENCES OF THE LIBERALIZATION POLICY OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

The Opening of State Monopolies to Competition: Main Issues of the Liberalization Process

Damien Geradin 181

State Monopoly Liberalization and the Consumer

Francis McGowan 207

Comments

Robin Simpson 229

Liberalization and the Creation of Strategic Alliances

Jean-Francois Bellis 233

III. THE LIBERALIZATION POLICY OF THE EUROPEAN UNION IN A COMPARATIVE AND INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE

Deregulation in the United States: Transition to the Promised Land, a New Regulatory Paradigm, or Back to the Future?

Alfred C. Aman, Jr. 263

The WTO Agreement on Telecommunications: It's Never Too Late

Petros Mavroidis and Damien J. Neven 307

Comments

Pierre Larouche 319

Multilateral Trade Issues and Liberalization: Current and Future Perspectives

David Luff 331

List of Contributors 359

Index 361