

Competencies, Higher Education and Career in Japan and the Netherlands

Edited by

Jim Allen

University of Maastricht, the Netherlands

Yuki Inenaga

University of Tsukuba, Japan

Rolf van der Velden

University of Maastricht, The Netherlands

Keiichi Yoshimoto

Kyushu University, Japan

&L± Springer

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part 1: Background

Chapter 1 Introduction

Jim Allen, Yuki Inenaga, Rolf van der Velden and Keiichi Yoshimoto.....3

Chapter 2 Policies on the Transition from Higher-Education to Employment since the 1990s

Naoyuki Ogata, Egbert de Weert and Keiichi Yoshimoto.....25

Part 2: Higher Education Experiences

Chapter 3 Competencies Acquired at University and Required in the Workplace

Naoyuki Ogata.....51

Chapter 4 University and College Differences in the Returns to Education in Japan and the Netherlands

Rolf van der Velden, Peet van de Loo and Christoph Meng.....77

Chapter 5 University Education and its Relevance to Working Life: Selection, Education and Career Effects

Keiichi Yoshimoto and Hiroshi Yamada.....97

Part 3: Transition and Professional Careers

Chapter 6 On the Use and Generation of Knowledge Economy Competencies

Paul Ghijsen and Christoph Meng.....131

Chapter 7 Influence of Diversified Employment on the Initial Career of Higher Education Graduates

Reiko Kosugi.....149

Chapter 8 Career and Mobility in Japan and the Netherlands: A Comparative Study of Early-Career Patterns of Recently Graduated Employees

Peter Muhlau.....165

Part 4: Values and Work Orientations

Chapter 9	Japanese and Dutch Graduates' Work Orientations and Job Satisfaction Sandy Farag and Jim Allen .....	191
Chapter 10	Individualism and Collectivism: The Differential Impact of Job Competencies and Characteristics on Wages and Employee Well-Being in Japan and the Netherlands. Christophe Boone, Christoph Meng and Rolf van der Velden .....	211
Chapter 11	Does Higher Education Provide Opportunities for Career Development of Men and Women? Yuki Inenaga .....	225
Part 5: Final Reflections
Chapter 12	The Relationships Between Higher Education and Employment in Japan and the Netherlands: A View from Outside Ulrich Tetchier .....	251
Subject Index	.....	265