

Paolo Cecchini · Friedrich Heinemann · Mathias Jopp
(Eds.)

The Incomplete European Market for Financial Services

With 54 Figures and 52 Tables

Physica-Verlag

A Springer-Verlag Company

ZEW

Zentrum für Europäische
Wirtschaftsforschung GmbH

Centre for European Economic Research

Table of Contents

Preface	V
Financial Integration Within the European Union: Towards a Single Market for Insurance (Rainer Beckmann, Carsten Eppendorfer and Markus Neimke)	1
Financial Integration in Europe and Banking Sector Performance (Claudia M. Buch and Ralph P. Heinrich)	31
Market Access Strategies in the EU Banking Sector – Obstacles and Benefits Towards an Integrated European Retail Market (Carsten Eppendorfer, Rainer Beckmann and Markus Neimke)	65
The Benefits of Creating an Integrated EU Market for Investment Funds (Friedrich Heinemann)	89
Integration Benefits on EU Retail Credit Markets – Evidence from Interest Rate Pass-Through (Friedrich Heinemann and Martin Schüler)	105
How Integrated Are the European Retail Financial Markets? A Cointegration Analysis (Martin Schüler and Friedrich Heinemann)	129
Integration of the European Market for E-Finance – Evidence from Online Brokerage (Martin Schüler)	155
Benefits of Diversification and Integration for International Equity and Bond Portfolios (Michael Schröder)	179
Deepening European Financial Integration: Theoretical Considerations and Empirical Evaluation of Growth and Employment Benefits (Markus Neimke, Carsten Eppendorfer and Rainer Beckmann)	187
Supervising the European Financial System (Karel Lannoo)	231