1817

WORLD BANK LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN STUDIES

Viewpoints

BEYOND THE CENTER: DECENTRALIZING THE STATE

Shahid Javed Burki Guillermo E. Perry William R. Dillinger

1.4

Te! +44 (0) 1420 86848 Fax +44 (0) 1420 89889

e-mail info@hcn-optology.com

Omega Park Alton Hampshire GU34 2PG UK

THE WORLD BANK Washington, d.c.

Contents

,

Acknowledgments	. . vii
Acronyms and Abbreviations	ix
$ imes$ Prologue: Matching Authority and Accountability $\ldots$	1
/ Chapter 1: Decentralization: Politics in Command
The Roots of Centralism	9
The Wind Changes
Eight Cases
Federal Countries Reverting to Type
Civilian Regimes Unleashing Local Electoral Competition
Two-tier States	13
Chapter 2: Getting the Rules Right: A Framework for Subnational Government	. 17
Dividing Up National Political Power	18
Assigning Functions, Structures, and Revenues.
Functions	21
Structure	24
Revenues: Taxes and Transfers
Controlling Subnational Debt
Local Politics
Strategies
Synchronizing the Elements of Reform
Demonstrating Early Commitment to the New Rules of the Game
	94
Chapter 3: Addressing the Macroeconomic Threat: The Quest for Hard Budget Constraints	. 35
Evidence of Macroeconomic Problems: Econometric Results
Outcomes and Institutions in Major Decentralized States of Latin America
Hard Budget Constraints for Subnational Governments.
Borrowing Constraints
Autonomy of Subnational Governments to Stay Within Budget Constraints
Revenue Autonomy
Political Ability to Enforce Hard Budget Constraints Outcomes and Institutions in Four Latin American Countries
Summary of Cases
Decentralization Institutions and Fiscal Management
Hard Budget Constraints for Transfers and Service Responsibilities.
Borrowing Constraints

4

•

Subnational Autonomy for Fiscal Adjustment	50
Intergovernmental Political Relations	51
Conclusion
Chapter 4: Empowering Municipalities or Schools? The Decentraization of Education	53
Rationale for Education Decentralization	54
The Educational Context of Decentralization
Typology
Level of Decentralization
Decisionmaking Powers
Structure and Content
Typology Applied to Recent Latin American Experience   Level of Decentralization
Decisionmaking Powers
Structure and Content
Evaluation Decentralization
High-Performing Schools
Characteristics of Effective Schools
The Consequences of School Decentralization.
Leadership.
Teaching Excellence
Focus on Learning
Responsibility
Empirical Findings.
Conclusion
Annex
Chapter 5: Empowering Mayors, Hospital Directors, or Patients? The Decentralization of Health Care
Three Kinds of Health Services
Three Kinds of Health Services
Three Kinds of Health Services Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly
Three Kinds of Health Services   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization
Three Kinds of Health Services   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets
Three Kinds of Health Services   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production
Three Kinds of Health Services   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing
Three Kinds of Health Services   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly .   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform Conclusion .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .   Conclusion .
Three Kinds of Health Services .    Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly. Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing . Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health . Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform Conclusion . Conclusion .   Conclusion . Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise .   Decentralization in the Road Management Sector. Sector.
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .   Conclusion .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization .   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .   Conclusion .   Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise .   Decentralization in the Road Management Sector.   In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience
Three Kinds of Health Services . Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How . Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly . Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization . Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production . Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization. Major Issues in Decentralizing Health . Labor Management . Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions . The Political Economy of Reform Conclusion . Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise . Decentralization in the Road Management Sector . In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience What is Decentralization in the Road Sector? Road Functions . Management Tasks .
Three Kinds of Health Services . Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How . Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly . Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization . Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production . Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing . Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization . Major Issues in Decentralizing Health . Labor Management . Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions . The Political Economy of Reform . Conclusion . Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise . Decentralization in the Road Management Sector . In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience . What is Decentralizion in the Road Sector? . Road Functions . Management Tasks . Financing Mechanisms .
Three Kinds of Health Services . Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How . Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly. Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization . Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production . Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing . Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization. Major Issues in Decentralizing Health . Labor Management . Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions . The Political Economy of Reform . Conclusion . Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise . Decentralization in the Road Management Sector . In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience . What is Decentralization in the Road Sector? Road Functions . Management Tasks . Financing Mechanisms . Road Decentralization in Latin America .
Three Kinds of Health Services . Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How . Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly. Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization . Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production . Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing . Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization. Major Issues in Deccntralizing Health . Labor Management . Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions . The Political Economy of Reform . Conclusion . Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise Decentralization in the Road Management Sector . In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience . What is Decentralization in the Road Sector? Road Functions . Management Tasks . Financing Mechanisms . Road Decentralization in Latin America. Where Political and Fiscal Decentralization is Well Established .
Three Kinds of Health Services .   Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing .   What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How .   Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly.   Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization .   Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets .   Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production .   Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing .   Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization.   Major Issues in Decentralizing Health .   Labor Management .   Recurrent Financing .   Investment Decisions .   The Political Economy of Reform .   Conclusion .   Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise .   Decentralization in the Road Management Sector.   In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience   What is Decentralization in the Road Sector?   Road Functions .   Management Tasks   Financing Mechanisms.   Road Decentralization in Latin America.   Where Political and Fiscal Decentralization is Well Established Dangers of Rapid Decentralization .
Three Kinds of Health Services . Many Modes of Service Delivery and Financing . What has been Decentralized in Latin America and How . Argentina: From Central Monopoly to Provincial Monopoly. Mexico: From Deconcentration to Decentralization . Bolivia: Municipalizing the Physical but not the Human Assets . Brazil: Public Financing with Private Production . Chile: Municipalizing Production, Centralizing Financing . Colombia: Conflicts Between Decentralization and Privatization. Major Issues in Deccntralizing Health . Labor Management . Recurrent Financing . Investment Decisions . The Political Economy of Reform . Conclusion . Chapter 6: Decentralizing Roads: Matching Accountability, Resources, and Technical Expertise Decentralization in the Road Management Sector . In Search of a Model: The Latin American and Caribbean Experience . What is Decentralization in the Road Sector? Road Functions . Management Tasks . Financing Mechanisms . Road Decentralization in Latin America. Where Political and Fiscal Decentralization is Well Established .

References
_
Boxes
Box P.1	What is Decentralization?
Box 2.1	A Glossary of Political Terms
Box 2.2	How Far to Decentralize?
Box 2.3	Are Local Governments Incompetent?
Box 2.4	Revenue Assignment in Federal Countries
Box 2.5	The Impact of Transfers on Local Political Behavior
Box 3.1	Risks and Costs in the Source and Terms of Borrowing
Box 4.1	Chicago: An Initial Emphasis on Governance
Box 4.2	Memphis: Decentralization Focused on Improving Learning
Box 4.A.1	What Has Been Learned from Effective Reform Strategies?
Box 5.1	Lack of Reliable Information
Box 6.1	The New Generation of Road Funds
Box 6.2	Key Features of the Contrato de Recuperación Mantenimiento (CREMA)
ables
Table P.1	Summary of Decentralization Measures
Table 1.1	Summary of Decentralization Measures in Selected Countries
Table 1.2	Indicators of Decentralization
Table 2.1	Electoral Rules, Selected Latin American Countries.
Table 2.2	Electoral Rules, Selected OECD Countries
Table 2.3	Structure of Subnational Governments: Selected OECD and Latin American Countries
Table 2.4	Principal Revenue Sources of Subnational Governments
Table 2.5	Sources of Revenues: Percent Distribution, Selected Countries
Table 3.1	Basic Model: Cross Section; Overall Sample Estimates
Table 3.2	Panel Data, Fiscal Variables in First Differences, 1980–94.
Table 3.3	Institutional Arrangements to Set and Keep Hard Budget Constraints on States
Table 3.4	Summary of Conditions for Reduced Danger of Excess Deficits
Table 3.5 Table 4.1	Channels for Control of Subnational Borrowing
	Types of Decisions that may be Decentralized.
Table 4.2	The Locus of Key Educational Decisions and Responsibilities, Selected Latin American Countries
Table 4.3	Characteristics that can be Stimulated Through Decentralization.
Table 4.4	Assessment of Education Decentralization
Table 4.A.1	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Argentina, Education Reforms 1976–1991
Table 4.A.2	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Chicago, IL, Education Reforms 1988–1999
Table 4.A.3	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Chile, Education Reforms 1981
Table 4.A.4	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System El Salvador, Community-Managed Schools (EDUCC
Table 4.A.5	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Memphis, TN, Education Reforms 1995–1999
Table 4.A.6	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Mexico, Education Reforms 1992–1998
Table 4.A.7	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Minas Gerais, Brazil
Table 4.A.8	Characteristics of "Decentralized" School System Nicaragua, Education Reforms 1993-1998
Table 4.A.9	Summary of Characteristics of Decentralized Schools.
Table 5.1	Suggested Financing and Provision for Different Types of Health Services
Table 5.2	Authority to Manage Personnel by Different Levels of Government
Table 5.3	Authority to Make Infrastructure Investments
Table 6.1	Decentralization Options for the Road Sector igures
Figure / 1	Latin American Countries Implementing Education Reforms

Figure 4.1	Latin American Countries Implementing Education Reforms	54
Figure 4.2	Average Math Achievement Test Scores of Eighth Graders, Selected International Comparators	55
Figure 4.3	Third-Grade Language Achievement, Latin American Countries	56
Figure 4.4	Level of Decisionmaking in Education Sector	58