

COMPARATIVE ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS

A/459316

By

Jerry McBeath

*University of Alaska Fairbanks,
Department of Political Science, U.S.A.*

and

Jonathan Rosenberg

*University of Alaska Fairbanks,
Department of Political Science, U.S.A.*

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments .....	ix
About the authors .....	xi
1 .....	1
CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION .....	1
1. The Nature of the Subject .....	1
2. The Relevance of Comparative Environmental Politics .....	5
3. Unit of Analysis: The Nation-State .....	9
4. A Political Approach .....	10
5. Research in Comparative Environmental Politics ...	14
6. Plan of the Book .....	15
2 .....	21
CHAPTER TWO: STATE-SOCIETY RELATIONS....	21
1. Conceptual Distinctions .....	21
2. Traditional Attitudes and Values Toward the Environment .....	23
3. Economic Development and Social Change .....	30
4. A "New" Environmental Paradigm?.....	34
5. Social Organization and State Decision-Making ....	45
6. Summing Up.....	49
3 .....	57
CHAPTER THREE: POLITICAL PROCESSES AND ORGANIZATIONS .....	57
1. Movements, Groups, and Parties .....	57
2. The Media and Public Opinion on the Environment	80
3. Environmentalism and Democratization .....	83
4 .....	89
CHAPTER FOUR: POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS AND THE ENVIRONMENT .....	89
1. The Nature of Institutions .....	89
2. Constitutional Limitations on State Power .....	92
3. Territorial Distribution of Authority .....	95
4. Concentration of Decision-Making Authority.....	100
5. Courts and a "Right" of the Environment .....	104
6. Environmental Policy-Making .....	106
7. The Political Opportunity Structure of Nations .....	110

5	.....	115
	CHAPTER FIVE: NATIONAL CAPACITY TO PROTECT THE ENVIRONMENT .....	115
	1. The Concept of Capacity .....	115
	2. Who Governs Environmental Outcomes?.....	116
	3. Resources Critical to Capacity-Building .....	117
	4. Comparative Environmental Capacity of Nation- States .....	123
	5. Global Environmental Policy Learning.....	134
6	.....	139
	CHAPTER SIX: NATIONAL RESPONSES TO GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS .....	139
	1. Global Environmental Policy Issues .....	139
	2. Climate Change .....	140
	3. Biodiversity Loss .....	144
	4. National “Styles” in Response to Global Environmental Change .....	166
7	.....	173
	CHAPTER SEVEN: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS .....	173
	1. Summary .....	173
	2. The Merits of Comparative Political Analysis .....	176
Index	.....	183