

A 344647

Capitalism in Evolution

Global Contentions – East and West

Edited by

Geoffrey M. Hodgson

Research Professor, University of Hertfordshire Business School, Hertford, UK

Makoto Itoh

Professor of Economics at Kokugakuin University, Tokyo and Emeritus Professor, University of Tokyo, Japan

Nobuharu Yokokawa

Professor of Economics, Musashi University, Tokyo, Japan

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix

1 Introduction	1
Geoffrey M. Hodgson, Makoto Itoh and Nobuharu Yokokawa

PART I GENERAL THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES

2 Contested exchange: a new microeconomics of capitalism	21
Samuel Bowles and Herbert M. Gintis
3 Economic theory and the complexity of capitalism	36
Yoshinori Shiozawa
4 The development of the market economy and the formation of voice	48
Kiichiro Yagi

PART II THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES ON VARIETIES OF CAPITALISM

5 The evolution of capitalism from the perspective of institutional and evolutionary economics	63
Geoffrey M. Hodgson
6 Information technology and the 'biodiversity' of capitalism	83
Ugo Pagano
7 The diversity and future of capitalisms: a régulationniste analysis	100
Robert A. Boyer

PART III GLOBAL PATHS OF CAPITALIST DEVELOPMENT

8 Where are the advanced economies going?	125
Robert E. Rowthorn
9 The evolution of Japanese capitalism under global competition	143
Makoto Noguchi

10	From bureaucratic capitalism to transnational capitalism: an intermediate theory Nobuharu Yokokawa	159
11	The evolutionary spiral of capitalism: globalization and neo-liberalism Makoto Itoh	179
	Index	195