

Capitalism in Evolution

Global Contentions – East and West

Edited by

Geoffrey M. Hodgson

Research Professor, University of Hertfordshire Business School, Hertford, UK

Makoto Itoh

Professor of Economics at Kokugakuin University, Tokyo and Emeritus Professor, University of Tokyo, Japan

Nobuharu Yokokawa

Professor of Economics, Musashi University, Tokyo, Japan

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

	of figures of tables	vii viii
List	of contributors	ix
1	Introduction Geoffrey M. Hodgson, Makoto Itoh and Nobuharu Yokokawa	1
PAF	RT I GENERAL THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES
2	Contested exchange: a new microeconomics of capitalism Samuel Bowles and Herbert M. Gintis	21
3	Economic theory and the complexity of capitalism Yoshinori Shiozawa	36
4	The development of the market economy and the formation of voice Kiichiro Yagi	48
PAF	RT II THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES ON VARIETIES OF CAPITALISM
5	The evolution of capitalism from the perspective of institutional and evolutionary economics Geoffrey M. Hodgson	63
6	Information technology and the 'biodiversity' of capitalism Ugo Pagano	83
7	The diversity and future of capitalisms: a régulationnist analysis Robert A. Boyer	100
PAF	RT III GLOBAL PATHS OF CAPITALIST DEVELOPMENT
8	Where are the advanced economies going? Robert E. Rowthorn	125
9	The evolution of Japanese capitalism under global competition Makoto Noguchi	143

10	From bureaucratic capitalism to transnational capitalism: an intermediate theory	159
	Nobuharu Yokokawa
11	The evolutionary spiral of capitalism: globalization and neoliberalism	179
	Makoto Itoh
Ind	ex	195