

A
386017

386017
Lgb
39

THE CIVIL WAR IN NICARAGUA

INSIDE THE SANDINISTAS

Roger Miranda
William Ratliff

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)
(1994)

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction: Victory and Opportunity Lost	1
PART I Inside the FSLN
1. Mystique Succumbs to Power	9
2. The Vanguard of the Vanguard	19
3. Daniel and Humberto Somoza	45
4. The New Rich	57
PART II Sandinista Thinking and Allies
5. Worldview and Ideology	69
6. Here's Mud in Your Eye	81
7. The Godfather and the Poor Brother in the Family	97
8. The Soviet Union and the Sandinistas	115
9. The MiG Umbrella That Never Was	127
10. Beyond Nicaragua's Borders	135
PART III The Enemy of Humanity
11. The Gringo Imperialists	153
PART IV The Democracy of Violence
12. Framework of Control	167
13. Promoting Poverty	175
14. The Sentinel of the People's Happiness	189
15. A Giant, Blind and Deaf, Flailing Wildly	203
PART V Theory and Practice of War
16. A Military Doctrine to Beat the Gringos	221
17. The War That Needn't Have Been	231
18. Peace as a Strategy in War	253
PART VI The Collapse of Sandinismo?
19. Sandinismo: From Government to Opposition	271

Conclusions	283
Postscript—February 1994	293
Index	299