

Irregular Migration

The Dilemmas of Transnational Mobility

---

Bill Jordan

Professor of Social Policy, University of Exeter, Professor of Social Policy, University of Huddersfield and Reader in Social Policy, University of North London, UK

Franck Düvell

Research Fellow, University of Exeter, UK and Lecturer, University of Bremen, Germany

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

---

List of tables	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: theoretical framework and plan of the book	1
PART I MOBILITY AND ITS REGULATION
1 Irregular migration and mobility in economic theory	15
2 Mobility and migration in the European Union	36
3 Irregular migration, labour markets and social protection	54
PART II THE UK AS A CASE STUDY
4 Why they come	79
5 How they survive	112
6 The role of support organisations	150
PART III THE RESPONSE OF THE RECEIVING SOCIETY
7 Internal controls and enforcement: immigration authorities and the police	171
8 Irregular migration and the public services	198
9 Recruitment of labour from abroad	217
10 In search of global justice	235
Bibliography	256
Index	277